INALJ Digest (the I Need a Library Job total jobs resource):

This daily jobs digest is created and edited Mondays - Fridays by Naomi House and the volunteers listed here. This project began as a way to share with other MLS/MLIS students and grads access to the jobs I saw online and through lists and listservs. INALJ started on October 16, 2010. Over 5,000 FB fans, over 2,600 Twitter fans, over 2,400 LinkedIn members and over 3,600 subscribers to INALJ. Happy job hunting!

Information Assurance/Information Integrity Faculty
San Jose State University
San Jose, CA
Apply by 2/1
San Jose State University seeks to dramatically expand its faculty working in the area of cyber security/data science by hiring a cluster of five new faculty members. The university seeks people who are able to initiate and participate in interdisciplinary collaborations in the area of cyber security or data science, and who are skilled researchers and teachers in one of five areas: Computer Science, Computer Engineering, Library and Information Science, Management Information Science, or Psychology.
As part of this initiative the School of Library and Information Science (SLIS) is looking for a faculty member with a focus in either information assurance/information integrity or large data sets/information visualization. The successful applicant will teach online classes for SLIS and conduct research, build online interdisciplinary certificates, and develop fundable research proposals with colleagues in the cybersecurity and data science clusters in the University.
A successful applicant focused primarily in the area of information assurance/information integrity will teach online classes and conduct research with cluster faculty members in one or more of the following areas:

- Protection of records and archives via trusted digital repositories that ensure the accuracy, reliability, and authenticity (i.e., identity and integrity) of records in the cloud and records delivered via mobile devices
- Information risk analysis, management, and compliance of digital records
- Sustainability of digital records

- Privacy and freedom of information
- Encryption management strategies
- Recovery and disaster techniques including disaster planning

A successful applicant focused primarily in the area of large data sets/information visualization will teach online classes and conduct research with cluster faculty members in one or more of the following areas:

- Analysis of unstructured and machine generated data from social media (e.g., Facebook and Twitter)
- Information visualization to help users gain new and deeper knowledge from complex information
- Tagging of data for ease of analysis and findability
- Metadata systems, architectures, and applications
- Semantic networks and linked data
- Data analytics
- Text/data mining
- Pattern recognition

We require an earned doctorate; a strong record of scholarly and professional achievement; and an excitement and enjoyment for teaching and working online.

The School of Library and Information Science (SLIS) at San Jose State University is fully accredited by the American Library Association through 2014. It has 2000 students and since Fall 2009 delivers its degrees only online. In addition to the online Masters in Library and Information Science (MLIS) degree SLIS offers an online master's degree in Archives and Records Administration (MARA), a gateway Ph.D. program with Queensland University of Technology, and a Post Master's Certificate program. The School is part of the College of Applied Sciences and Arts at San Jose State University. The School has a rich technological environment (Desire2Learn Learning Management System, Blackboard Collaborate Web conferencing, WebEx, Blackboard IM, Panopto, and Web 2.0 tools such as social networking, blogs, wikis, podcasts, and collaborative environments).

Check out Innovate Magazine, SLIS's 2012 Annual Review, to see what our students and faculty are doing.

Send by February 1, 2013:

(1) A letter of application that addresses in detail the requirements listed above and into which of the two cluster areas you feel best fitted

(2) A curriculum vitae

(3) Three original letters of reference with contact information

Application material should be sent electronically (pdf or a URL) to:

Dr. Linda Main, Chair of the Search Committee at: Linda.Main@sjsu.edu

Please include Job Opening ID: 22461

San Jose State University is home to the Silicon Valley Center for Cyber Security, is a partner in the NSF-funded national Center for Science and Technology for Research in Ubiquitous Secure Technology (TRUST) at UC Berkeley, and hosted the national symposium on Curriculum Development in Security and Information Assurance (CDSIA) as well as the Oates Security in the Cyberage Symposium.

Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP
Los Angeles, CA
Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP, is recruiting for a Manager of Business Intake and Records responsible for the management of the firm's paper and electronics records and support of its electronic business intake and related workflows. The position includes the supervision of the Records Department staff, plus a dotted line responsibility for File Room personnel throughout the Firm's 16 world-wide offices. The ideal candidate has in-depth knowledge of established records and data management theory, practice and procedures, protection of data, maintenance, and disposition of client and administrative records. The Records Manager is responsible for developing and implementing departmental policies and procedures, administering the Electronic Records Management (ERM) system, (iManage Records Manager), supporting the electronic Matter Management System (matter intake), ethical wall management, inactive records storage management, including development and implementation of records retention and destruction programs. The person identifies technology requirements and recommends automation and other enhancements to improve user services. The Records Manager will report to the Chief Security Officer and work closely with the Office of the General Counsel.
Job Responsibilities
* Manage all aspects of firm and client information, both hard copy and electronic.
* Provide support, guidance, mentoring, and education, to ensure that appropriate monitoring and controls are in place for compliance within established policies and procedures.
* Participate in firm-wide records management, matter management system and related risk management training to attorneys and staff.
* Supervise staff, conduct performance evaluations, monitor attendance and implement training programs.
* Oversee new employee orientations, attorney arrivals and departures, transfer of files within and outside the firm.
* Negotiate vendor contracts, approve invoices, monitor expenses, and prepare department's annual budget.
* Maintain a close working relationship with Conflicts, Billing, Docket & Calendar, and Information Technology departments.
* Stay current with emerging technologies and provide industry best practice on solutions that meet business and technical requirements.
* Manage information on the Records Department intranet site.
Preferred Experience
* Applicants should have a minimum of five years relevant work experience in Records Management in a large law firm environment.
* 4 year college degree.
* Certified records manager (CRM) credential preferred.
* Extensive knowledge of Records Management/Information Governance best practices relevant to the legal environment.
* Strong computer and database skills utilizing ERM and document management systems.
* Strong trouble-shooting, investigation and problem solving skills.
* Exceptional interpersonal skills and project planning skills are essential for this position with the ability to work effectively with end-users, IT peers, managers and attorneys.

* Must have advanced written and verbal communication skills.

Librarian, Technology Trainer
Pueblo City-County Library
Pueblo, CO
Salary Range: Grade 9, $39,790 - $53,513. Are you a librarian who loves new technology? Are you a natural at training others? Then don't miss this opportunity to join the Pueblo City County Library District as our new Librarian /Technology Trainer! This is an exciting new position we have created to help fill the technology gap within our community and ensure that our library staff is skilled, passionate and ready to serve our community with technology services. If this is the right job for you, you will provide district-wide training to staff and customers on the use of new technology services, applications, digital devices and web tools to promote the use of the Libraries' technology based resources. You will be passionate about using technology resources and training others to use them. You will possess the ability to communicate to a diverse population of adults with a variety of learning needs in a group setting. You will also be responsible for developing staff training plans, public workshops, training assessment tools, instructional materials and flyers. The Librarian, Technology Trainer reports to the Reference & Readers' Advisory Supervising Librarian. This position interacts extensively with district-wide staff, customers, the IT department, and technology vendors. The work requires interpersonal communication skills with the ability to teach adults using a variety of learning models. Must possess good judgment, diplomacy and the ability to resolve issues to create a fun and engaging learning environment. So what will the Librarian /Technology Trainer do? You will act as the key technology trainer for the library district by assessing needs, developing materials and delivering training programs to staff and customers. Use effective training techniques to engage a wide variety of learners and ability levels. Act as a main point of contact for staff and customers seeking assistance with public computer services, digital devices and emerging technologies and new library services. Serve as the primary interface for the Library District to perform research into emerging technologies and identify how their use may be applied to PCCLD services and collections. Identify staff and customer needs in regards to digital and emerging technologies and develops strategies to meet those needs including developing teaching aids and tools. Provide technology assistance and introduces new technologies to library staff, volunteers and customers at all library locations. Network with outside technology groups and vendors including outside library technology groups to identify emerging trends for technology use in library settings. Assist customers with performing research into digital and new technology inquiries including software, applications, publishing vendors, operating systems and hardware. Coordinate with Community Relations in creating user tools and brochures on how to use PCCLD's technology resources. Provide general reference assistance by helping customers locate materials, answers questions, places holds, completes forms, confers with other staff and makes referrals to other organizations and agencies; instructs customers in the use of print and on-line materials, equipment, and technologies. Resolve customer issues and communicates library policies and procedures to customers. Are we a match? We can provide you with a progressive, motivating and rewarding environment to work in an area that fosters your passion for libraries, technology and training. A Masters Degree in Library Science from a college or university accredited by the American Library Association is required and experience working with emerging technologies, preferably in an instructional or teaching capacity. The skills and abilities that will make you successful in this position include: Knowledge of adult materials in print, electronic, periodical, video, digital and other mediums; expert level of knowledge around the field of digital and emerging technologies; possess a strong working knowledge on use of Microsoft operating system and software; knowledge of other Internet software and media applications, digital technologies, android and Apple software a must; ability to plan, instruct and transfer information to a diverse population; knowledge of adult learning models; demonstrated ability to develop programming that meets the community's needs; knowledge of research techniques, reference resources, databases and internet resources; ability to work independently and as a team member to plan, develop, organize and execute job assignments; excellent customer relations skills and the ability to deal with difficult situations and resolve issues; ability to conduct reference interviews. Applicants must pass a criminal background investigation. Must have good driving record, current Colorado Driver's License and automobile insurance. How do I apply? Submit a completed PCCLD Employment Application, letter of interest and resume. Obtain an application by visiting www.pueblolibrary.org. Email: sara.rose@pueblolibrary.org. Mail: PCCLD, HR, 100 E. Abriendo Ave., Pueblo, CO 81004. Fax: 719-562-5609.

Research Assistant
Corporation for Supportive Housing
Hartford, CT
The Corporation for Supportive Housing (CSH) is a national, nonprofit organization that helps communities create permanent housing with services to prevent and end homelessness. CSH advances its mission by providing high-quality advice and development expertise, by making loans and grants to supportive housing sponsors, by strengthening the supportive housing industry, and by reforming public policy to make it easier to create and operate supportive housing. CSH delivers its core services primarily through staff stationed in 21 locations nationally. CSH also operates targeted initiatives and capacity building efforts in many other communities.

Job Description

CSH is seeking to fill a Research Assistant position to carry out several activities in support of our efforts to integrate supportive housing with health and health care services through the Social Innovation Fund. Ideal candidates will be a recent bachelors or masters level graduate from an accredited university preferably with a focus on housing, human services, community or public health, or government policy. CSH seeks individuals who have an entrepreneurial spirit and are organized, efficient, and eager to learn. This is a half time contractual position with a negotiated hourly stipend. Travel to project sites, when necessary, will be reimbursed. This position is located in Hartford, CT.

Responsibilities

Under the supervision of the Health and Housing Senior Program Manager of the Connecticut Program, the work of research assistant will support the Social Innovation Fund, part of Connecticut program's efforts to expand the integration of health and health care services into supportive housing. Among the tasks the person in this position will be responsible for:

- Conducting multi-methods field research (observational, survey and documentation).
- Conducting comprehensive literature reviews of the evidence base and current best practices for a range of relevant topics.
- Assisting with the production of reports, summaries, and various products to disseminate emerging evidence from the Social Innovation Fund.
- Assisting with the training and support of supportive housing staff in the field in documentation and program compliance.
- Assist with administrative tasks as needed, including correspondence and communication with CSH partners

Qualifications

The successful candidate will have the following qualifications and a commitment to treating others with respect:

- A bachelors degree, masters degree preferred, from an accredited university, preferably with a focus on housing, human services, community or public health, or government policy.
- The candidate should have received at least basic training in Research Methods. Some research experience preferred.
- Have excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Have the ability to interact with supportive housing sponsors and supportive housing funders in Connecticut.
- Be detail-oriented.
- Have the ability to work independently.
- Be proficient in MS Word and Excel
- The candidate must have a driver's license and reliable transportation.

Application Instructions

Candidates should submit a resume and cover letter describing their interest in the position to:
Kevin Irwin, Senior Program Manager - Connecticut Program
77 Buckingham Street Hartford, CT 06106
kevin.irwin@csh.org

Internship in Evaluation and Audience Research
Smithsonian Center for Education and Museum Studies
Washington, DC
The mission of the Smithsonian Center for Education and Museum Studies (SCEMS) is to interpret the collective knowledge of the Smithsonian and serve as a gateway to the Institution's education resources. Through research, publishing, and staff development programs for the education and museum communities, the Center promotes the understanding and use of museums.
As the central office of education, The Smithsonian Center for Education and Museum Studies (SCEMS) is well-positioned to give interns a broad overview of the Smithsonian Institution, introductions to the wide variety of work that museum and education professionals here are involved in, and an opportunity to participate in a deeper level with special projects. (If you are interested in interacting with students and the public in a daily museum-setting, you should consider applying directly to an education internship at one of the museums.)

We are located in Washington, D.C. and are metro-accessible. Our internships are unpaid, but we will work with your school if you'd like to receive credit.
Our highly competitive program has the following opening:
SUMMER 2012 - Evaluation Research and Audience Development
Interns implement evaluation projects for education programs across the entire Smithsonian Institution. Assist with different phases of evaluation projects - conceptualization, collection and analysis of data, & report results to different audiences; Statistical analysis and collection and analysis of qualitative data. Advanced level undergraduate or graduate student with experience and interest in museum and program evaluation. Evaluation, anthropology or sociology background. At least 3 days per week or 20 + hours. Flexible schedule, but a 6 month commitment to the project is preferred.
Eligibility: Qualifications vary depending upon the project, but most are for upper-level undergraduate and graduate students. Student status, however, is not a prerequisite. Opportunities are generally not available for high school students.
Security: All interns are required to undergo a security background investigation and fingerprinting through the Office of Protection Services before they are accepted into the program.
How to Apply
Please apply using the Smithsonian online application system https://solaa.si.edu. Paper applications will not be considered.
Please be aware that complete applications must include the following:
- Resume
- Academic transcripts (unofficial are acceptable)
- Essay to tell us how the internship will advance your academic and career goals
- 2 letters of reference either uploaded by you or by your reference (or a combination)
Essential Tips for the Online Application: We're Paperless!
* Do NOT click submit on your application until all necessary components are uploaded (i.e. transcripts, essay, resume). Once submitted, you cannot upload or change anything within the application. You can however, save and return to your application during the process of applying, before submitting.
* An unofficial or official transcript can be uploaded by first scanning the document and saving it as a .pdf or .jpeg. Please do not mail the transcript separately.
* In the Reference Letter section, make sure that you click the "send email" button, and that you enter your reference's e-mail address correctly. This triggers the system to email your referees with instructions for uploading the reference letter. Please advise your reference of this in advance.
Deadlines are rolling, however we begin an internal review of applications for positions after the following dates:
* Spring (January - May) 10/15
* Summer (June - August) 2/1
* Fall (September - December) 7/5
Questions: If you have any questions about the application process or SCEMS' internships, please send inquiries totspinale@si.edu. If you have questions concerning the SOLAA application, please go to the Help section on the SOLAA website. You will be able to check your application status online. If you are selected for an interview, you will be contacted, generally within 3-4 of the posted deadline.

Contract Museum Educator
National Capital Radio & Television Museum
Washington, DC
Apply by 2/1
Responsibilities: Working with the summer camp team and other staff and volunteers of the Museum, the contractor will be responsible for designing 70 hours (two weeks) of summer camp curricula for K-2, 3-4, and 5-6. Although there are 70 hours for each grade group, it is anticipated that the activities will be basically the same for each grade level, but with added levels of complexity for the older students. The curricula will be based on the State of Maryland[1]s standards of learning in both science and social studies. In addition, the curricula will be object-based and will incorporate materials under development by the Museum for K-6 visitors. The curricula will be highly interactive. The Museum has identified examples of activities for the children, but lesson plans for each day must be developed for use by the camp counselors. Both radio/television technology as well as the cultural and social aspects of radio and television will be included in the curriculum. The contractor will meet with the summer camp team to establish deadlines for curriculum components. The contractor will then meet with the summer camp team in person or via electronic meetings no less than weekly to go over the lesson plans as they are being developed. It is expected that the work will be completed no later than May 15. The Museum has budgeted $6,000 for this work. Proposers should state an hourly rate and an estimate of hours to complete this task. Invoices will be submitted following each set of 20 hours of lesson plans (k-2,3-4, and 5-6) completed. The final invoice will be for the last 10 hours.
Qualifications: MA in Museum Education. Experience in designing programs/educational curricula aimed at children, for an object-based museum environment, involving history and science components. At least 5 years experience as a museum educator. Experience research, writing, and designing educational curricula for an object-based Museum environment. Experience in establishing program goals and objectives to meet national curriculum standards while employing object-based learning techniques.
To apply: Applications, with cover letter; resume; references; proposed lesson plan boilerplate; sample of related lessons, and other related materials should be sent to: lbaty@ncrtv.org and received no later than midnight EST February 1. Subject line: Museum Educator position.

Researcher
Yale Law Library
Library of Congress
Washington, DC
The Yale Law Library is looking for someone to help with a research project at the Library of Congress, Manuscripts Division. Because we need the research to be completed within three weeks, it's a very short-term assignment.
The project involves requesting about 40 boxes from the Papers of William Edgar Borah (http://lcweb2.loc.gov/service/mss/eadxmlmss/eadpdfmss/2011/ms011058.pdf) and copying, scanning, or photographing the contents of a few folders dealing with discrete subjects identified in the LOC's finding aid. The Borah Papers are stored off-site. Since it can take a couple of days for the boxes to arrive and be available for use in the Manuscripts Reading Room, we would like to hire someone and begin the project as soon as possible.
In addition to being able to start and finish the project within our abbreviated time limitations, the preferred candidate will already have experience handling -- and duplicating -- manuscript and archival material. We can offer $15/hour plus copying expenses.
If you're interested in this opportunity, please contact Mike VanderHeijden, Faculty Services Reference Librarian, Yale Law School, at michael.vanderheijden@yale.edu.

Development Associate
iCivics
Washington, DC
iCivics seeks an up-and-coming development professional to join a small team on a big mission: to revolutionize the way students learn about American government and civil society. As a member of the development team, you'll ensure the sustainability of an organization vital to the future of American democracy. To thrive in this position, you must be excited about jumping into a small team with a results-oriented, get-it-done, startup culture. About iCivics: We develop innovative video games, lesson plans, and other educational resources to prepare middle and high school students for informed participation in American democracy. Founded by retired Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor to reverse the decline in civic education and participation of American youth, iCivics has become a leader in civic and digital learning. Our program is growing rapidly and needs a development strategy adequate to the need. This is a part-time position (estimated 20 hours/week) with potential to evolve to a full-time position. We offer a competitive salary and benefits package. Primary Responsibilities With iCivics' leadership, implement a development plan for iCivics that maximizes our revenues, consistent with our mission and values Manage the process of turning program concepts into proposals for funding Ensure that development-related activities – prospecting, solicitation, and stewardship – occur in a timely and courteous manner reflecting the quality of our work Lead research and prospecting of individual, foundation, and corporate donors Scan the philanthropic landscape to identify new opportunities and risks Manage a supporter database Opportunities This is an entry-level position, and we expect that successful candidates will acquire new skills in any or all of the following directions: Grant writing and management Major gift solicitation and stewardship Corporate sponsor solicitation and stewardship Strategic planning Qualifications Previous experience and success in fundraising or sales Strong orientation towards details, e.g. grant requirements and deadlines Strong writing skills Ability to maintain a professional and nonpartisan image Demonstrated ability to build and sustain relationships over long periods of time Demonstrated ability to stay focused within a dynamic environment where information and needs evolve quickly Demonstrated ability to manage others, including supervisors, contractors, and volunteers, to achieve priorities Passion for civic education, civic engagement, and/or educational technology strongly preferred Application Instructions Send resume, cover letter, and 2-3 relevant writing samples (e.g. solicitation letters, grant proposals, thank-you letters) to jobs@icivics.org. Consider your cover letter an opportunity to impress us. Include your last name and the job title in the subject line of your email. Unfortunately, due to the volume of application packages we receive, we are not able to make personal contact with individuals who are not going to be invited in for interviews. If you are selected for an interview, we will contact you to schedule a convenient date and time. iCivics' offices are located in the Dupont Circle area of Washington DC. We are a small non-profit organization with big ambitions. Successful team members take ownership of results, are curious about improving those results, and take smart risks to implement improvements. We discourage bureaucratic attitudes that focus on inputs rather than outcomes. Compensation is competitive with positions requiring similar skills and experience.

Intern
The John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art
Sarasota, FL
Apply by 3/1
The John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art in Sarasota, Florida will be offering six paid internships to be held for ten weeks, from June 3 - August 9, 2013 (the dates of the theater internships are June 10 – August 3, 2013). Ringling is part of Florida State University and serves as the State Art Museum of Florida. Located on a 66-acre site overlooking Sarasota Bay, it consist of an art museum, two circus museums, historic home, theater, and research library. Duties Include: Summer internships at the Ringling combine practical, hands-on experience working on a project for a specific department with exposure to all aspects of the museum's operation. The internships are in the following departments: archives, collections management, education, library, Historic Asolo Theater (2 positions). Salary: Interns earn $11.25 per hour (less taxes) and are paid bi-weekly. Interns are responsible for their own housing (the Museum will assist with location nearby rentals). Requirements: Candidates for Archives, Collections Management, Education, and Library internships must be enrolled in a graduate program at the time of application, or have received a graduate degree no earlier than December 2012. Candidates for the theater internship should have a minimum of two years technical theater experience and a recently completed degree in Theater. International applicants must have a current US Visa and be eligible to work in the US. The positions require fingerprinting. The Museum encourages students from all backgrounds to apply and is committed to a culturally diverse group. Application materials can be found on the Museum's website at http://www.ringling.org/Opportunities.aspx.

Instructional Services Librarian
University of West Georgia
Carrollton, GA
Apply by 2/22
Do you get energized by working with students and helping them connect ideas? Would you like to work in a newly renovated building designed to foster professional creativity, collaborative teaching, and student learning? Are you open to new ideas and challenges?
The University of West Georgia seeks to add to our Instructional Services team by hiring an Instructional Services Librarian.
A major component of our information literacy program is our credit-bearing course; approximately 30 sections of this course are taught each year with documented positive results for student success (see http://crl.acrl.org/content/early/2012/12/19/crl12-424.full.pdf+html). In addition to the credit-bearing course, librarians teach information literacy classes by instructor request and in scheduled topical workshops. Courses and workshops are offered face-to-face and online. Librarians serve as liaisons to academic departments and provide reference services (face-to-face and via chat). Reference and instruction activities may include some evening and weekend hours. All librarian appointments are tenure-track faculty positions. As faculty, librarians serve on university committees, support the greater good of the institution and pursue professional development opportunities. Instructional Services librarians are expected to have a strong interest in advancing the field of library instruction.
Each Instructional Services librarian has an area of focus to contribute to the short and long-range goals of the department. Due to the dynamic nature of librarianship and the ever-evolving needs of our patrons, these areas of focus change as Instructional Services continuously monitors campus needs and curriculum trends. Therefore, the successful candidate will have diverse interests and talents as well as a desire to grow professionally in new directions.
Instructional Services is building a positive culture of assessment. Each librarian is responsible for outlining an assessment strategy for his or her area of focus. These strategies will be revised and implemented in a supportive learning environment as the team learns together how to best assess our services.
Ingram Library recently finished a major building renovation. The library has three instructional spaces for one-shots and the credit-bearing course. The Instructional Services office suite is designed to facilitate collaboration among Instructional Services librarians. These new spaces provide opportunities for librarians to experiment with emerging pedagogies. The successful candidate will be open to new ideas, willing to take risks and have the ability and courage to fail gracefully and change course when necessary.

Required Qualifications
· ALA accredited Masters in Library Science in-hand by the start date
· Comfortable teaching and presenting information in front of a group
· Strong desire to experiment with new instructional pedagogy and delivery methods

· Ability to work cooperatively with people from diverse backgrounds
· Strong communication skills
· Adept at learning new technologies and using them effectively
· Quick-thinking and flexible

· Demonstrated ability to work creatively and collaboratively with others while also pursuing and completing individual projects
· Record of establishing and maintaining effective work relationships
· Intellectual curiosity
Preferred Qualifications
· 2+ years professional academic library experience
· Teaching experience
· Experience with course management systems
· Familiarity with assessment methods and standards
· Comfortable teaching and presenting information in an online environment
· Subject expertise in a field that is currently taught at UWG
· Demonstrated success with applying for and securing grants
· Academic background in business or familiarity with business resources
· Experience teaching technology usage
· Project management experience
· Sense of humor
Location
The University of West Georgia is located in Carrollton, GA, a community approximately one hour west of Atlanta and about 20 miles east of the Alabama state line. As employees of the University System of Georgia, UWG librarians enjoy free tuition for most degrees (through doctoral level) at all University System of Georgia schools. Librarians earn 14 hours of annual leave per month, 8 hours of sick time per month, and twelve assigned paid holidays per year. See http://www.westga.edu/hrpay for other benefits information.
Start Date
Position is available July 1, 2013. Salary mid $40,000s
To apply please submit CV, cover letter, unofficial transcripts and contact information for 3 references to Anne C. Barnhart, Head of Instructional Services (barnhart@westga.edu). Application deadline is February 22, 2013.
The University of West Georgia is an Affirmative Action/ Equal Opportunity Institution. Official transcripts are requirements for employment by the University of West Georgia. Please be advised that should you be recommended for a position, University System of Georgia Board of Regents policy requires the completion of a background check as a prior condition of employment.

Postdoctoral Research Position
Northwestern University
Evanston, IL
The Social Media Laboratory at Northwestern University seeks a highly qualified post-doctoral scholar to conduct research in the area of collaboration and social media. At the Social Media Lab, we study, design and develop technological systems capable of supporting group work and interaction in work, play and social environments. The post-doctoral research will be supervised primarily by Prof. Jeremy Birnholtz. The appointment is for full-time employment. The salary will range from $42,000-$48,000 (USD) for a 12-month appointment and includes full benefits (benefits information is available at www.northwestern.edu/hr). The position may be renewable for a second year. The post-doctoral researcher will work in the newly designed Social Media Lab and will have access to state-of-the-art research facilities, undergraduate research assistants, and an engaging community of scholars interested in technology and social behavior. Additional funds are available for computing and professional travel. The position does not have a teaching requirement. The start date is flexible, but Spring or Summer 2013 is preferred. The ideal post-doctoral researcher will have skills and interests in the areas of computer-mediated communication, collaboration technology, and social interaction online. Specific projects are flexible but will likely include studies of how attention is conveyed and managed in online interaction, and how people interact around shared artifacts and documents online . Applicants must have a PhD in Human-Computer Interaction, Information Science, Computer Science, Communication, Cognitive Science, or a related field by the time of employment. They should have experience conducting independent research, a record of communicating research results via publications and presentations, and be willing to participate in collaborative, interdisciplinary research at Northwestern University. Manuscripts & Rare Books Collection Supervisor
Indiana State Library
Terre Haute, IN
Apply by 2/8
The Indiana State Library has a vacancy for a Librarian 1 within their Manuscripts and Rare Books Collection division. This position supervises all aspects within this unique division. In addition, the selected candidate will perform independently at the senior specialist level within the Indiana State Library providing an advanced level of technical expertise and research/information retrieval expertise in such specialized areas of information science as manuscripts, rare materials, preservation, bibliographic control, material processing, Indiana history, genealogy and reference/research queries in broad subject fields of knowledge in all types of formats. Responsibilities: The selected candidate will be expected to process the manuscript collections and prepare finding aids. The selected candidate will update the Manuscript Section web pages. This position provides reference services in person, via telephone or on QuestionPoint. This position is expected to perform preservation duties on the collections. The selected candidate will be responsible for collection maintenance and the intellectual control of all archival material including paper, photographs, and audio/visual. This includes microfilming and scanning collections as needed. The selected candidate will be expected to create and staff exhibits, which includes preparing and giving programs on pertinent subjects. Finally, this position will expected to collect and provide patron and collection statistics. Preferred Experience: Master of Library Science (MLS) degree from an accredited institution plus one (1) year full-time professional experience as a Librarian. Plus Eligible to be certified by the Indiana Library and Historical Board as a Librarian 3 or higher within the first six (6) months of employment. Additional Skills preferred: must be able to lift and shelve boxes weighing up to 40 pounds with or without reasonable accommodation; supervisory experience; familiarity with DACS and/or APPM; experience providing reference service to a diverse audience; experience in providing public relations activities; digital imaging and archives related use of internet and other information technologies (FrontPage, Photoshop, CONTENTdm); MARC and EAD cataloging experience; ability to work harmoniously and effectively with others; ability to work independently, take initiative, and use good judgment; excellent oral and written communication skills; familiarity with standard conservation techniques and practices. Additional Comments: The selected candidate must be able to lift and shelve boxes weighing up to 40 pounds with or without reasonable accommodation. This candidate must be able to work harmoniously and effectively with others, take initiative and use good judgment and provide outstanding patron service. This position is responsible for the day to day operation of the Manuscript and Rare Books section of the Indiana State Library. This position supervises one (1) employee, possible student interns, and volunteers. The selected candidate will be expected to attend appropriate meetings and workshops. Additionally, this position collects and disseminates statistics on patron and collection use. This position works with other State Library staff, supervisors, local, state and federal employees and officials, various civic groups and individuals, staff of other libraries and historical societies within the state and the general public. The majority of the work is done in an office/library setting, however, the Manuscript staff is responsible for retrieving requested collections which are located on the 4th floor of the State Library. In addition, collections may be retrieved from donors at offsite locations. Visit the State of Indiana Personnel Department's website (http://www.in.gov/spd/) and reference Job ID #582962 within the job bank to apply or for more information.

Southwest Indiana Regional Coordinator
Indiana State Library
Terre Haute, IN

Apply by 2/8
The Indiana State Library has a vacancy for a Regional Coordinator, Librarian 1 within their Professional Development Office division. This position serves as the ambassadors of the Indiana State Library and the State Librarian to library staff from all types of libraries in Indiana. Regional Coordinators offer training workshops to library staff on the resources available from the Indiana State Library, including Evergreen, Inspire, Web Junction, and LSTA and similar grant opportunities. This position serves in a leadership role in the library community by connecting the resources throughout the state and staying abreast of national and international trends in library science. Responsibilities: The Regional Librarians provide information, marketing, consulting, continuing education opportunities, and more to libraries within their geographical area of the state. This position will be responsible for the following: conduct regional marketing activity, assess area library needs and help develop area library services. Marketing activities include exhibits at conferences; plan, develop and coordinate continuing education opportunities for Indiana libraries, including making use of video conferencing, online and/or Webinar technology as appropriate; develop and teach ongoing workshops and classes as determined appropriate to meet regional library needs; present in-service demonstrations of State Library services and/or other library topics to libraries and library related groups; act as a "clearinghouse" for questions from visits, e-mail, phone or other correspondence, referring questions to appropriate State Library staff as needed; maintain working knowledge of current State Library services, programs, projects and regional library needs; make onsite marketing and in-service visits to assigned area libraries; maintain communication and coordination of work assignments with the Director of Professional Development; advise the Director of Professional Development of any problems, requests, library concerns, procedural or policy issues and other matters affecting regional services; participate on Professional Development and Regional task forces, project teams, and committees as assigned; other duties as assigned. Preferred Experience: Master of Library Science (MLS) degree from an accredited institution plus one (1) year full-time professional experience as a Librarian. Plus Eligible to be certified by the Indiana Library and Historical Board as a Librarian 3 or higher within the first six (6) months of employment. Additional Comments: Travel can be necessary in early mornings and/or late nights. The State Library avoids overnight travel as much as possible. The selected candidate will use his/her personal vehicle for travel and to transport equipment such as laptops, projectors, and barcode printers. Reimbursement for travel is given as determined by the State. Approximately 1/3 of the libraries in the state are in the regional coordinator's area, however the selected candidate may be asked to travel outside of the assigned region occasionally. The selected candidate will be expected to work closely with library directors and staff of all types of libraries in the assigned region, as well as Indiana State Library staff in meetings and workshops. The selected candidate will have the ability to telecommute from his/her home office. Visit the State of Indiana Personnel Department's website (http://www.in.gov/spd/) and reference Job ID #582961 within the job bank to apply or for more information.

Intern
Chevy Chase Historical Society
Chevy Chase, MD
Apply by 2/15
The Chevy Chase Historical Society seeks a part-time paid intern to assist with the development of three online exhibits for the CCHS website. Primary duties will include: 1) background research for the exhibits using the CCHS digital archive as well as secondary historical sources and archival newspapers, 2) drafting and editing of exhibit text, 3) selecting and scanning exhibit images, 4) managing exhibit photo permissions, and 5) uploading content to the exhibit templates. Additional duties may include working with our digital database, assisting patrons with research, working with volunteers, and assisting in office management. The intern will report directly to, and work closely with, the Director of the Archive and the Board of Directors. This 15-hour a week position, at $15/hour, will be funded until June 30, 2013, with the possibility of extension. The successful candidate must have: completed or substantially completed an M.L.S. from an ALA-accredited library school or a graduate degree in history, art history or related discipline; experience arranging and describing archival collections in a historical, cultural or academic repository; a demonstrated ability to communicate effectively, both orally and in writing; excellent organizational skills, accuracy, and attention to detail; the ability to work independently, prioritize work and meet deadlines; attention to detail and accuracy with information; familiarity with historical research methods; knowledge of basic preservation and conservation standards for archival and manuscript collections; knowledge of database management techniques, electronic storage methods, document imaging, and document retrieval systems; Experience with Pastperfect, Adobe, and Drupal is preferred (will train if necessary); knowledge of MS Office computer software. To apply: Please submit a cover letter and resume as well as the contact information for two to three references. If applicant is a recent graduate, official transcripts should also be sent directly from the colleges or universities attended. Applications can be mailed to: Gail Sansbury, PhD, Director, CCHS Archive and Research Center, Chevy Chase Historical Society, PO Box 15145, Chevy Chase, MD 20825 or emailed to chevychasehistory@msn.com. Closing date for applications is February 15, 2013. CCHS is an equal opportunity, equal access employer fully committed to achieving a diverse workforce.

Research Specialist
Analysis Group
Boston, MA
Summary: Primarily using CourtLink and other online databases and information sources, this position will support the marketing team's case and business development-related research requests. Typical assignments will include: fulfilling expert research requests, retrieving and summarizing information gathered on court cases for consultants' leads, retrieving articles, and searching and preparing summaries of news on legal issues in support of consultant requests. This job is ideal for a candidate who has the intellectual curiosity to be creative; the tenacity to track down needed information; the capacity to filter large amounts of data; and the ability to problem-solve with a very high level of attention to detail and accuracy. Essential Job Functions and Responsibilities: Provide high quality, thoughtful marketing-related research using internal and external research tools including CourtLink, Law360, Bloomberg Law, LexisNexis, and Factiva. Assist the research team in lead tracking by updating case dockets, identifying case details (counsel involved, dockets, complaints, etc.), and both creating and updating leads in our CRM system (InterAction). Research legal and practice-specific news. Using our online databases and news sources, produce news summaries, company/individual dossiers, and industry/practice-specific profiles in support of business development initiatives. Assist with various marketing-related efforts, as needed. Relationships: Support the Business Development Manager and Senior Business Development Specialist in fulfilling research requests from consulting staff and the marketing team. Work closely with all members of the marketing team to provide support on business development outreach and lead generation activities. Qualifications: Bachelor's degree and one to two years of professional experience; Master of Library and Information Science (MLIS) preferred. Ideal candidate will have business research experience in the legal or professional services industry. Proficient in searching online research databases; prior experience with LexisNexis, Westlaw, Bloomberg Law or other online legal databases preferred. Interest in legal issues and on cases currently being litigated. Must have solid research skills as well as good analytical and critical reasoning skills. Must be able to organize, plan and work on multiple projects simultaneously, prioritize projects, meet deadlines, and be flexible in order to respond to shifting demands. Accuracy, attention to detail, and problem solving ability are critical. Must exhibit a desire to learn, participate and take ownership of workload. Physical Demands: Engage in office work using a computer and telephone. Factors for Assessing Performance (Functional Competencies): Functional/Technical Capabilities - Demonstrates technical competence and effectively delivers support in area of expertise. Customer Service - Responsive to internal and external requests; provides high quality service and support. Communication - Communicates clearly and listens to requests effectively. Teamwork/Working Characteristics - Demonstrates ability to work effectively with others and independently. Demonstrates initiative and ownership. Project Management - Effectively manages projects, meeting necessary deadlines. Problem Resolution - Resolves problems quickly and effectively. Nothing in this Job Description restricts Analysis Group, Inc.'s right to assign or reassign duties and responsibilities to this position at any time. This position is at will, which means that it can be terminated by the employee holding the position or by Analysis Group, Inc. at any time, with or without cause or notice. Application Process: Please send a cover letter and resume to Victoria Hopcroft at vhopcroft@analysisgroup.com

Instructional Design Librarian
Rutgers University Libraries
New Brunswick, NJ
Responsibilities: The Rutgers University Libraries (RUL) seek a creative and dynamic, service-oriented librarian to provide leadership in the development of a comprehensive, scalable and sustainable library instruction program. The instructional designer will: lead the Libraries' efforts to develop pedagogically sound learning experiences in collaboration with librarians, teaching faculty, and relevant campus partners; focus on designing curriculum-based instruction, enhancing critical thinking skills, and building information literacy competencies, focusing on a diverse undergraduate population; employ relevant technologies to enhance online and face-to-face instruction, including developing learning objects and other instructional tools; coordinate with library faculty to integrate measurable learning objectives, appropriate educational activities, and methods of assessment into all library instructional activities; serve as liaison to students, faculty and staff of the Rutgers Graduate School of Education providing instruction and research consultations, and participating in collection development activities; participate in general library instruction and provide in-person and virtual reference service. This tenure track position reports to the Associate University Librarian for Research & Instructional Services, is a member of the New Brunswick Libraries Faculty, and is based at the Kilmer Library. The successful candidate must demonstrate a commitment to continual professional development through scholarly research including publications, presentations and participation and leadership in the work of relevant professional associations. Qualifications: A Master's degree in Library or Information Sciences from an ALA-accredited institution is required; a second Master's degree in Instructional Design, Instruction Technology or Education is strongly preferred. The successful candidate should have several years' experience designing learning-theory-based library instruction, have knowledge of information literacy pedagogy, demonstrate proficiency with instructional technologies, exhibit excellent communication skills, and possess the ability to work both independently and in a collegial environment and work effectively with a diverse student body. Demonstrated commitment to fostering diversity as an organizational priority is required. Candidates who have had successful experience in the design and delivery of services for diverse populations will be given preference. The successful candidate must be eligible to work in the U.S. Salary/status: Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. Benefits: Faculty status, calendar year appointment, retirement plans, life/health insurance, prescription drug, dental and vision plans, tuition remission, one month vacation. Library profile: The Rutgers University Libraries (RUL), comprising libraries on the University's Camden, New Brunswick, and Newark campuses, all reporting to the Vice President for Information Services and University Librarian, operate as a unified library system with coordinated public, technical services, and collection development programs including digital initiatives and a pioneering institutional repository. The Libraries have highly valued staff of about 300 who are committed to develop innovations in access services, information literacy and digital initiatives. RUL operates with a budget of $28 million and outstanding collections especially in jazz and New Jerseyana. Rutgers University Libraries are a member of ARL, CRL, Lyrasis, Metro, NERL, and VALE, and use Sirsi Dynix and OCLC as primary bibliographic utilities and Fedora repository software. Rutgers University New Brunswick campus is the largest of the three regional campuses, supporting over 33,000 graduate and undergraduate students, in approximately 100 undergraduate programs, more than 80 graduate/professional programs, and 60 doctoral programs as a Carnegie Classification Research University (very high research activity) campus. Rutgers University is a member of the Association of American Universities and is an ADVANCE institution, committed to increase diversity and the participation and advancement of women in the STEM disciplines. To apply: review of applications and interviews will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Submit resume, cover letter, and names of three references to: Lila Fredenburg (APP. 203), Director of Administrative Services, Rutgers University Libraries, 169 College Avenue, New Brunswick, NJ 08901-1163, email: rulhr@rulmail.rutgers.edu, FAX: 732-932-7637. Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey, is an equal-opportunity, affirmative-action employer. The Libraries are strongly and actively committed to diversity, and seek candidates who will contribute creatively to the University's multicultural environment.

Project Web Developer
Wildlife Conservation Society
Bronx, NY
As part of a grant-funded project, the Wildlife Conservation Society Library & Archives seeks a creative and experienced web developer. In consultation with the WCS Archivist, the project web developer will work within open source software to design, create, and implement a website to display content (in the form of digitized early-twentieth-century scrapbooks) and metadata.
Beyond monthly scheduled meetings with the WCS Archivist, the project web developer will work independently and is expected to finish the project within 5 months. The project, including the meetings, may be done remotely.
The Archives serves as WCS's memory, with collections spanning its rich history as a leader in global wildlife conservation and as the manager of the world's largest system of urban wildlife parks, led by the flagship Bronx Zoo. Through projects like this one, the Archives seeks to provide innovative ways to serve and engage both scholars and the general public.
Requirements:
•Working experience with open-source digital repository, content management system, and eReader software
•Excellent HTML, CSS, PHP and other scripting languages, and Javascript skills, including frameworks and techniques such as AJAX, JQuery, and Prototype
•Demonstrated ability to customize open source applications to enhance user experience
•Strong attention to site aesthetics and efficiency
•Evidence of ability to solve problems creatively and meet deadlines
Preferred:
•Work experience in library or archives setting
•Familiarity with archival metadata standards
To apply for this position, please submit a cover letter, CV, and work sample demonstrating experience with a comparable project (preferably in the form of a URL) to library@wcs.org

Library Director
Rye (NY) Free Reading Room
Rye, NY
Apply by 2/17
Rye Free Reading Room's Board of Trustees seeks a creative and energetic new leader to promote library services and continue the Library's commitment to quality programming and services for the Rye community. The Director will work closely with the 18-member Board of Directors, a 45-member Auxiliary Board, staff and local stakeholders to develop and articulate its vision for library service, design and implement strategic initiatives, and administer the service program, facility and space planning, and fundraising and resource development. As an association library, the Rye Free Reading Room is funded by the City of Rye and private donations, with the Board actively investigating options for sustainable funding. The successful candidate will focus on accomplishing the following: fostering a strong and collaborative relationship with city government—city council and city manager—to achieve a higher degree of funding security; working closely with other local non-profit organizations and agencies to enhance the breadth and delivery of library services; reaching out to the community at large to keep them informed of the library's wide range of resources, programs and funding needs; and working to optimize and implement the new three-year strategic plan. See RFFR Director job description for the complete job description.
Rye Free Reading Room has a collection of 98,887 items housed in the main library and a small branch and circulates over 222,654 items annually. With a staff of 13.92 FTEs and a budget of $1.5 million, the library provides exceptional customer service and its programs are consistently among the most heavily attended in Westchester County—attendance last year pushed over 34,356 with best-selling authors and a wide-selection of children's programs. A recent expansion of the landmark building on Rye's Village Green and ongoing capital projects—including repurposing the historic 2nd floor, adding a Teen Center and meeting room—help ensure the facilities are well-positioned for continued growth.

Rye, a suburban community in Westchester County, is home to 15,000 residents. Located on Long Island Sound, Rye enjoys a strong sense of community, with close proximity to New York City and regional attractions in the Tri-State area. For additional information on the Library, the City and the area see Rye Free Reading Room links.
Minimum qualifications include an MLS from an ALA accredited institution and at least five years of progressively responsible experience, including at least two years management experience in a public library. The successful candidate must have excellent communication and interpersonal skills, demonstrated leadership ability and the ability to work collaboratively with Board, staff, elected officials and community groups. In addition, the successful candidate must be able to articulate a vision of library services in the 21st century. Successful experience with fundraising, building maintenance, working in a union environment and reporting to policy board are highly desirable.
Compensation: The starting salary range is $92,000-$108,000 (dependent on experience and qualifications) plus benefits.
For further information, contact Bradbury Associates/Gossage Sager Associates via email or phone. Apply via email with a meaningful cover letter and your resume as Word or pdf attachments to Dan Bradbury or Jobeth Bradbury.

Grossman, MSLIS, Taxonomy Manager, RGrossman@scholastic.com.

Collection Archivist
Samuel H. Kress Foundation
New York, NY
The Kress Foundation houses the archives associated with the development of the Kress Collection. The Collection comprises more than 3,000 Old Master and Renaissance works, now distributed in municipal and academic museums and galleries throughout the United States. The records focus on the artworks and dealers, the Foundation leaders and the recipient institutions of the Collection when it was distributed in the 1960s.
Primary Responsibilities and Duties: Process archival materials, encompassing paper documents, photographs, and varied ephemera associated with the Kress Collection. Provide arrangement and description of materials along with re-housing. Ensure uniformity and quality of archives records. Create a finding aid following professional archival standards. Enter all record information into Excel with the eventual goal of creating an EAD finding aid accessible via the Kress Foundation website. Provide occasional basic reference services. Aspects of the project will be done in consultation with the General Archives of the National Gallery of Art in Washington D. C. Periodic travel to the NGA may be required.
Requirements and Qualifications: Strong interest in the history of collecting. Completion of an accredited Library & Information Science program, with a focus in archives, special collections and preservation. Archives Certificate preferred. 2-3 years experience within special libraries and archives. Knowledge of and interest in European art is preferred. Knowledge of current archival standards is essential, including DACS and EAD. Meticulous organizational skills. Experience with open source data management systems such as Archivists' Toolkit preferred. Strong interpersonal skills with excellent demonstrated written and oral communication skills. Ability to work independently, be extremely reliable, ethical and adhere to deadlines. Ability to maintain a strict level of discretion to insure absolute privacy of confidential and sensitive information. The project will commence as soon as possible, and conclude at the completion of the project. Must commit to two days per week (weekdays only). Archivist will report to the Deputy Director.
Please send cover letter, resume and salary history to the Deputy Director at lisa.schermerhorn@kressfoundation.org.

Project Archivsit
World's Fair Collections
Museum of New York

New York, NY
Museum of the City of New York and Queens Museum of Art
1939/1940 and 1964/1965 New York World's Fair Collections
The Museum of the City of New York and the Queens Museum of Art jointly seek a Project Archivist for a full-time temporary 18-month CLIR (Council on Library and Information Resources) funded Cataloging Hidden Special Collections and Archives grant to process the World's Fair Collections held at both institutions. MCNY and QMA together hold around 12,000 items (approximately 367 boxes and 450 oversize/irregular objects) documenting the New York World's Fairs of 1939/40 and 1964/65, including books, pamphlets, printed ephemera, rare architectural blueprints, original artworks, film and audio recordings, photographic prints and negatives, architectural models, textiles, and realia.
The Project Archivist will report to the Manuscripts and Reference Archivist at MCNY and to the Registrar/ Archives Manager at QMA. Four months will be spent working onsite at MCNY's landmark Fifth Avenue building, and fourteen months working both onsite at the Queens Museum of Art in Flushing Meadows-Corona Park, Queens, located in the only original building remaining from the 1939/40 World's Fair, and at the QMA offsite storage facility in Long Island City, Queens.
Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:
* Inventorying and processing all World's Fair holdings.
* Writing a single finding aid intellectually uniting both museums' collections
* Creating object level catalog records for a total of 1650 highlights from both collections in ARGUS and PastPerfect collections management systems.
* Supervising a team of two part-time Archival Fellows, and additional student interns.
* Re-housing the collections.
* Researching provenance.
* Assisting the MCNY Archivist and QMA Registrar with promoting the collection both to the public and within the archival/ museum community.
Qualifications: An MLIS from an accredited Library and Information Science program with course work in archival studies is required. The candidate should have at least 2 years of professional archival experience, preferably in a museum or special collections repository. The successful candidate must be a self starter, and possess the experience, confidence, and initiative to develop and carry out a processing plan for two physically separate collections. The position requires someone with good communication skills, experience cataloging in collections management systems, familiarity with DACS (Describing Archives: A Content Standard) and CCO (Cataloging Cultural Objects) metadata schemas, and general comfort and aptitude for quickly learning new technology. The project requires that the candidate have the ability to lift and carry 40 pound boxes unassisted, and climb ladders and step stools in order to remove and replace boxes on shelves. An established knowledge of New York City history in general and an interest in the New York World's Fairs in particular is a plus. Founded in 1923 as private, non-profit corporation, the Museum connects the past, present, and future of New York City. It celebrates and interprets the city, educating the public about its distinctive character, especially its heritage of diversity, opportunity, and perpetual transformation. It serves the public through exhibitions, school and public programs, publications, and collections. The Queens Museum of Art (QMA) is in the midst of construction on an expansion that will double the size of the institution and usher in a new phase in its history. Since its founding in 1972, QMA has had an intimate connection to its community and the history of its site. The principal fine arts-collecting institution in the borough, QMA fulfills its mission by designing and providing art exhibitions and educational experiences that promote the appreciation and enjoyment of art, support the creative efforts of artists, and enhance the quality of life through interpreting, collecting, and exhibiting art, architecture, and design. QMA presents artistic and educational programs and exhibitions that directly relate to the contemporary urban life of its constituents while maintaining the highest standards of professional, intellectual, and ethical responsibility.
Project period: March 1, 2013 - August 31, 2014.
To apply: Please send a cover letter and resume to The Museum of the City of New York, Attention: Lindsay Turley, Manuscripts and Reference Archivist, 1220 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10029 or email lturley@mcny.org

Systems Librarian
Colgate University Libraries
Hamilton, NY
Apply by 2/25
Colgate University Libraries seeks a creative and user-oriented librarian to serve as Systems Librarian. Reporting to the Head of Digital Initiatives and Resources, this person will share leadership and responsibility for planning, developing, integrating, implementing, and maintaining the digital systems and services through which the Libraries support users in finding and using information. The primary focus will include (but not be limited to) the Libraries' integrated library system (currently Innovative Interfaces/III), interlibrary services system, the Dematic Library Automated Storage and Retrieval (LASR) system, and digital publishing platforms. The successful candidate will collaborate with librarians, staff, technologists, and faculty in a cutting edge library and technology facility. The person will have a strong philosophical and functional grounding in library services and the provision of technical and patron support in a library setting. Qualifications: An ALA-accredited master's degree or an equivalent master's degree, plus two years' experience working in a library setting. All librarians are expected to lead and work in a collaborative environment, to possess a strong public service orientation, to communicate effectively, to manage projects efficiently, and to work some evening, weekend, and holiday hours. The successful candidate will possess the best combination of the following: strong organizational, interpersonal, and project management skills; excellent oral and written communication skills; adaptability, creativity, and an aptitude to learn new technological tools and techniques; experience and interest in providing user (preferably patron) support, reference service, and information literacy instruction; working knowledge of an ILS (Innovative Interfaces Millennium/Sierra preferred but not required); proficiency with one or more programming or scripting languages and HTML/CSS; familiarity with the MARC cataloging format; working knowledge of the database technologies used to store, manipulate, and query structured data; proficiency with standard desktop software and hardware; familiarity with current and emerging trends, standards and technologies, and the intellectual curiosity to investigate, advise, and collaboratively implement new technology solutions. Additional information about Colgate University, the Colgate Libraries, and the full job description can be found at http://exlibris.colgate.edu/joinus.html. Application procedure: please apply online at https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/2515. Letters of application should contain a discussion of candidate's interest in developing as a teacher in an undergraduate, liberal-arts college that emphasizes close student-faculty interaction. Review of application materials will begin on Feb 25, 2013 and continue until the position is filled. Colgate is a highly selective private liberal arts university located in Hamilton, NY, and is an EO/AA employer. Developing and sustaining a diverse faculty, staff, and student body further the university's educational mission. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Applicants with dual career considerations can find postings of other employment opportunities at http://www.upstatenyherc.org.

New York, NY
PS 126/MAT is a PreK-8 public school located in Manhattan's Chinatown neighborhood. The library was re-created and re-opened during the 2008-2009 school year, after a several-year hiatus, then renovated over the summer of 2011, and recently re-opened (which provides us with an interesting story about our journey!). Our school is located in a high-poverty area, and is lucky to be filled with eager readers - the library receives a high volume of daily traffic. The PS 126/MAT library welcomes those interested in an internship placement as well as those seeking fieldwork hours. If you are interested, please contact Joanie Terrizzi: ps126matlibrary@gmail.com.

Digital Services, Library Services Technology Act Grant Intern
Ohio Historical Society
Columbus, OH
Join the Digital Services team for a unique experience at the Ohio Historical Society this fall! Through the Library Services Technology Act (LSTA) Grant, the Digital Services team will be preserving a historically significant collection of Ohio State Journal newspapers from 1832-1879. These historical documents will need to be prepared for preservation and then added to the Ohio Memory database. The Ohio Historical Society is currently seeking a motivated intern to assist with this important project. This is a very rewarding internship as the student will have exposure to different archival methods, work with Digital Services staff, and contribute to the preservation of a significant collection of historical primary sources. Qualifications: all majors are encouraged to apply. An interest or background in history or library services is a plus! The potential intern must be extremely detail oriented, able to multi-task, able to take direction and work independently, able to provide consistent work throughout the internship and maintain a steady pace, highly organized, proficient in Microsoft Word, comfortable with repetitive tasks and assignments, and have the ability to understand and appreciate the value of what this grant will accomplish in terms of Ohio and national history. Work Environment: This position will require prolonged sitting at work stations or a computer. The intern must possess the ability to lift up to twenty five pounds. This position may also produce significant eye strain as the intern will be scrutinizing small historical print as well as viewing a computer screen for extended periods of time. Duties: Working with the Digital Services team, the intern will assist with the following tasks: Preparing newspapers for microfilming, including collation--this will also include the creation of targets, reviewing newspapers for imperfections or significant damage, title changes; preparing microfilm for digitization; performing quality control checks on metadata and images. The successful candidate must be available between the hours of 8:00am and 5:00pm Monday through Friday. Currently, there is one $1,500 stipend position available. Intern must complete 150 hours by June 30, 2013. Stipend will be awarded at the completion of 150 hours of service. To apply, please submit a cover letter and resume detailing your qualifications and interests in this position. Please send all materials to Annamae Kacsandi at akacsandi@ohiohistory.org. Applications will be reviewed beginning January 16, 2013 and will be considered until positions are filled.

Cataloger II
Ohio Historical Society
Columbus, OH
Summary: This position provides services for the cataloging of archives, library, museum and special collections into the Society's online collection catalog. Salary Grade 7. Essential duties and responsibilities: Create original catalog records for library, special collections material and three-dimensional objects in the online collection catalog and OCLC Online Computer Library Center. Add item, copy and summary holding records to the online collection catalog. Revise and update bibliographic, item, copy and summary of holdings records in the online collection catalog. Revise, update and merge authority records in the public access catalog. Participate in the review and update workflow cataloging procedures. Interact with staff of OHIONET and OCLC Online Computer Library Center. Provide public reference services during assigned shifts. Train staff and volunteers on cataloging procedures. Other duties as assigned. Education, experience and skills: Candidates must have a Master's degree in library Science or related discipline from an accredited university. A minimum of three to five years experience with museum, library and/or archival collections desired. Demonstrated knowledge of cataloging and vocabulary standards such as Chenhall classifications, Library of Congress Subject Headings, Art and Architecture Thesaurus and Thesaurus of Graphical Materials. Also required are the ability to communicate effectively orally and in writing with patrons, staff and donors, basic mathematical skills and a basic knowledge of computer programs to include Microsoft Office, and on-line database search programs. Thorough knowledge of MARC formats and online access public catalogs. Candidates should be able to work independently, to follow complex instructions, to manage time effectively and to exercise good judgment. This position requires the ability to lift, carry, reach and retrieve items weighing up to 50 pounds from a height of six feet, the ability to operate library carts and may require standing, and movement within a confined area for periods of up to four hours. The majority of the work in this position is performed in a library environment; some takes place in library stack and storage areas, with overhead lighting, and industrial HVAC air circulation system. The Ohio Historical Society does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age or disability in employment or the provision of services. The Ohio Historical Society is a drug free workplace. The Human Resource Office hours are Monday-Friday, 9:00am to 4:00pm. For additional information, or if you have any trouble downloading or opening the job application above, contact the Personnel Office atapplicant@ohiohistory.org.

Practicum
State Library of Ohio
Columbus, OH
The State Library of Ohio is looking for a practicum student to assist with the backlog of offers of Government Information being added to the SLO federal documents collection. The offers are older documents discarded by Ohio selective depository libraries that are needed as replacements for State Library of Ohio documents because of condition or documents that were not received through the depository program. Typically, the documents are from the late 1800's to the 1970's. The practicum student will use the following tools to verify sudoc call numbers: State Library of Ohio catalog, OhioLINK catalog, World Cat, Guide to U.S. Government Publications (Andriot), Cumulative title index to the United States public documents, 1789-197, Monthly Catalog. The practicum student will compile lists of duplicate documents pulled from the State Library of Ohio's federal documents collection to submit to the Needs & Offers List. For more information and to arrange an interview send a resume and cover letter to: Audrey L. Hall, Library Consultant, Government Information, The State Library of Ohio, 274 E. The Editorial Library at The Columbus Dispatch, 34 S. 3rd St. in Downtown Columbus, Ohio, is seeking a graduate student or recent graduate in library science for our summer 2013 internship. We are looking for someone interested in assisting us in four main areas: * Adding and evaluating content on a regular basis to our newsroom wiki, DEWEY Answers, and to other internal databases. The wiki contains information about people, places and events in central Ohio, as well as timelines, tipsheets and stylebooks. * Working to index and promote our historic photo collection. * Offering group and individual training to journalism interns. * Contributing content to the librarians' historic photo blog, "A Look Back" (http://www.dispatch.com/content/blogs/a-look-back/index.html).
Other responsibilities include providing reference and research service using Nexis, public records databases and other online sources, and working with other library systems and materials. We will train on technical skills. The internship is full-time (9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday) and offers a competitive salary. Starting/ending dates will be determined based on candidate's availability, but usually begins in late May or early June and lasts 12 weeks. Candidate must be a self-starter and have a keen interest in current events. The Dispatch Library staff provides reference and research service to reporters and editors. The Library staff also builds and maintains digital archives for text, photos, graphics and PDFs, a department research Intranet and wiki, and a collection of reference books and serials. We have access to numerous electronic resources and historical collections.
Interested applicants should send a cover letter and resume to Julie Albert, Library Director, albertj@dispatch.com, or mail the materials to: Julie Albert, Editorial Library, The Columbus Dispatch, 34 S. 3rd St., Columbus OH 43215.

Library Director
Canal Fulton Public Library
Canal Fulton, OH
Apply by 3/15
Please submit a letter of application, outlining relevant experience, a resume, list of three references knowledgeable about your library work experience. A library application must also be completed and submitted. The application is available on the library's website at www.canalfultonlibrary.org; applications can be accepted by mail or e-mail. Requirements: MLS required from an ALA-accredited university, MPA preferred, but not required, plus five years post-graduate experience in a public library, including administrative and supervisory experience.

The director will work with the Library Board to determine the strategic direction for the library, will represent the library in the local and regional community, and will develop new library programs and innovative technologies. The successful candidate must have excellent communication skills, experience in budget development and management, and be responsive to the needs of the staff and patrons.
This hands-on position requires the candidate to be self-motivated, self-directed, and capable of working without administrative support staff. The library is located in a historic building 1880s Sullivan Residence with additions on three floors, 8,079 square feet.
The Canal Fulton Public Library is a school district public library with a service population of 13,328, in the Northwest Local School District that includes: Canal Fulton, Lawrence Township, Doylestown, Clinton and New Franklin. The library has 10,300 library cardholders, a staff of 12 full time and 7 part-time staff who offers children's and teen programs. The library is a member of the Serving Every Ohioan (SEO) Consortium that uses Sirsi Symphony ILS. The library has a collection of 55,284 items, a 2012 circulation of 298,600 and a 2013 budget of $895,129, a quarter of which is from a 1 mill continuous levy, three quarters of which is from the Public Library Fund. An additional 1 mill continuous levy has been placed on the May 7, 2013 ballot.

Quality Control Diversity Fellow
OCLC
Dublin, OH
Apply by 2/28
The Fellow will work for 12 months in the WorldCat Quality Management's Quality Control section, which will provide an experience in large-scale database maintenance working with MARC records. This opportunity will provide exposure to cataloging rules (RDA and AACR2) and practices from the perspective of a large shared bibliographic database. The Fellow will be provided with overviews of OCLC services and processes, learning opportunities to develop technical skills, and will be asked to meet objectives contributing to the success of the Quality Control Section.
Responsibilities: The Fellow will learn to process and correct identified sets of problem/error master records in the WorldCat database including reporting problems with Library of Congress (LC) records directly to LC. A wide variety of problems incorporating all aspects of the cataloging record will be included in this work. The Fellow will also learn the basics of NACO processing of name and series authority records and gain familiarity with the PCC (Program for Cooperative Cataloging). The Fellow will have training in processing and merging duplicate records in various formats including books, serials, scores, sound recordings, maps, and computer files. The Fellow will have the opportunity to gain a broad overview of database maintenance for the largest bibliographic database in the world. The Quality Control Section is part of OCLC's WorldCat Quality Management Division. Qualifications: ALA-accredited MLS/MLIS degree (granted by July 2013); have less than three years post graduate work experience; some familiarity with MARC, AACR2 and/or RDA, Dewey Decimal Classification or Library of Congress Classification, Library of Congress subject headings (course work would be acceptable); desire to specialize in cataloging/technical services; fluent reading skills in a language other than English (preferred); demonstrated experience using OCLC Connexion to search and edit bibliographic records; demonstrated awareness and sensitivity in issues of diversity and inclusion: strong awareness of other cultures and viewpoints, appreciation for the benefits of diversity in the workplace and library community, behavior which demonstrates the ability to work with people at all levels and from different backgrounds; strong organizational skills; exceptional communication skills – written, oral, small group presentation; selected individual must represent historically underrepresented groups (i.e., defined in a manner consistent with the 2007 EEO-1 race/ethnicity reporting classifications). Salary and Benefits: salary will be very competitive and commensurate with experience and applicable market compensation; the Fellow will be eligible for health & welfare benefits such as is provided to other similarly situated term-limited employees; relocation Assistance will be offered in the form of a lump sum distributed in two installments (50% at signing of offer and 50% after 90 days of start date). The amount of the lump sum will be determined by the distance required for relocation during the term of the fellowship. Application Procedures: OCLC Candidate Profile. Create your candidate profile at the OCLC Career Center Internet site. Once you select to apply for the OCLC Diversity Fellowship opening, you will be asked the following questions: Are you legally authorized to work in the United States? Will you now or in the future require sponsorship for employment visa status (e.g., H-1B, F-1 visa status)? List your library-related educational experience. Please include: name of degree and major; educational institution city/state/country; year degree awarded. List any additional educational experience. Please include: name of degree and major; educational institution city/state/country; year degree awarded. List the names of two persons (unrelated to you) who will be submitting letters of recommendation for you. Please include the e-mail address and phone number of the two recommenders. List your involvement with professional/student organizations (provide detailed listings of your activities and involvement with library and information science-related organizations); publications (citations for up to five key publications); and honors and awards.
List any employment experience, most recent position first. Please include: position title; institution; institution mailing address; dates of employment; and key responsibilities. Essay: Provide an original essay (to be submitted as part of your resume file) of no more than 1,000 words describing why you want to participate in the OCLC Diversity Fellowship Program, and how the experience will contribute to your short-term and long-term career plans. The essay should also demonstrate insight into the problems and opportunities surrounding diversity and inclusion in the library workforce.
Letters of Recommendation: Two persons (unrelated to you) will need to submit letters of recommendation on your behalf directly to: diversityfellow@oclc.org. Letters of recommendation MUST be sent separately via e-mail from the recommender's e-mail account (applicants cannot submit the letters). Recommenders should state how long they have known you and in what capacity, discuss evidence of your commitment to professional development and service, and give an assessment of your promise as a developing professional. Application Procedures: Application is initiated by applying to the specific fellowship requisition at the OCLC Career Center Internet site, www.oclc.jobs, where you will need to create an OCLC candidate profile. The OCLC Diversity Fellowship (WorldCat Quality Management) Job ID number is 2163. Note: If you have created an OCLC candidate profile in the past, please do not create a duplicate profile. Important: If you are applying for multiple OCLC positions, you only need to create one OCLC candidate profile, but you must apply towards each particular position via your candidate profile. When creating your profile, you will arrive at a section to 'upload your resume'. Please use that section to upload your original resume and essay in one file (both your resume and essay should be in one document before submitting the file online). If you experience problems uploading your resume and essay document, please submit the resume and essay via email directly to: diversityfellow@oclc.org. The application initiation and all required submissions (original essay and two letters of recommendation) MUST be completed and received by Thursday, February 28, 2013 at 5:00pm ET. Timeline and Key Dates: 2013 Program Applications Accepted (Fall 2012 to February 28, 2013). 2013 Application Deadline (February 28, 2013). 2013 Fellow Selection Process (April 2013). 2013 Notification of Decision (April/May 2013). 2013 Fellowship Program Starts (July 2013). 2013 Fellowship Program Ends (12 months after start date). The OCLC Diversity Fellowship Program 2012 (last year's) Program Guidelines document can be found at: http://www.oclc.org/us/en/community/careerdevelopment/minorityfellows/default.htm.

Internships (Summer 2013)
Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum
Cleveland, OH
Apply by 2/15
The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum's Library and Archives<http://library.rockhall.com> offers opportunities for intern experiences to graduate students preparing for careers in libraries and archives. Interns must schedule their work Monday through Friday during regular business hours. Interns work under the supervision and guidance of one of the Rock Hall's librarians and archivists, depending on the nature of the practicum. Internships are offered in the following areas: Archival Arrangement, Preservation, and Description: This internship provides the opportunity for a SLIS student to participate in archival processing and preservation work, such as inventorying, arranging and describing archival collections, entering data into an archival management system, helping to create an institutional disaster plan, and performing basic preservation work on document-based collections. Cataloging and Metadata: This internship provides the opportunity for a SLIS student to work on projects to create and enhance bibliographic records in a library catalog and/or create metadata for digital collections. Such work may entail assigning subject and name access points, preparing descriptive summaries, and reviewing catalog records for accuracy. Collection Development:This internship provides an opportunity for a SLIS student to participate in collection development activities in a music research library. Such work includes evaluating current materials and making recommendations for future additions to the collection. The student will gain an understanding of library users? needs, the constraints of physical space, various resources and tools used in collection development, and the budgetary considerations required of such decisions. Digital Projects: This internship provides the opportunity for a SLIS student to work in support of digitization initiatives to increase access to collections through digitization and website access. Possible assignments include scanning, entering and editing metadata in a digital asset management system, preparing technical and administrative documentation, testing digitization workflows, and assisting with interface design, usability studies, and related web development activities. How to Apply: Interested individuals may send a cover letter and resume (including full contact information and e-mail address), a personal statement or one-page document describing what they hope to bring to the internship and gain from the experience, and a letter of recommendation from a professor (may be sent separately) to: Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum, Attn: Human Resources Department, 1100 Rock and Roll Boulevard, Cleveland, OH 44114, email: hkosalko@rockhall.org. Library and Archives Internship

Longwood Gardens
Kennett Square, PA
Longwood Gardens Library and Archives seeks a graduate level student in Library Science or Archival studies (or related equivalent) to gain experience in the operations and management of a horticultural special library and institutional archives. International students and recent graduates may also apply. The intern works in each section of the unit—Library, Digital Gallery, and Archives—to develop projects aimed at furthering professional interests while working to achieve unit goals. This is a 40 hour per week, paid position with optional free housing (a taxable benefit). Longwood Gardens is a public display garden located in Kennett Square, PA, 45 minutes southwest of Philadelphia.
Position is available: May 15, 2013 - May 2014
Application Deadline: February 1, 2013. Review of applications will begin immediately.
Typical Duties and Responsibilities: Perform basic reference interviews and services. Become familiar with, and able to train others in, using Longwood Gardens' EOS International integrated library system (ILS), OCLC WorldCat, Agricola, and other relevant databases. Arrange and describe archival collections, develop finding aids, and make recommendations regarding storage, conservation and preservation treatment of archival materials. Perform circulation maintenance routines, such as check-in/check-out, shelve books and compile usage statistics. Assist and train patrons in the use of computers and software, A/V equipment, and copier. Assist with Interlibrary Loan tasks as needed. Assist with digitization/scanning projects. Learn cataloging procedures and assist in cataloging materials (or object collections) as needed. Assist with project work involving digital imaging, the ILS, and the Archives. Perform various daily administrative and technical tasks. Participate in student activities and field trips as scheduled.
Qualifications: Be pursuing or have recently completed a Masters of Science in Library Science (MLS) or related equivalent. Be able and willing to work independently. Have excellent communication and interpersonal skills, including ability to deal with people in a courteous, patient, and professional manner. Have physical ability to push fully-loaded book carts and handle heavy or oversize volumes. Must be able to lift 50 lbs. Be willing to follow all of Longwood Gardens' policies and procedures. Have a valid driver's license.
The position extends throughout one full year, full time, 40 hours per week. This is a paid position at a rate of $8.50/hour with optional free housing (a taxable benefit) provided. Located in Kennett Square, PA, Longwood Gardens is approximately 45 minutes southwest of Philadelphia. For more information on housing, student activities, hours and wages, contact EDU-Studies@longwoodgardens.org.
Completed applications should include:
1. Completed application form accessible here:
http://www.longwoodgardens.org/CollegeInternshipProgram_1_3_4_3_4.html

2. A copy of your resume.
3. A statement of your professional objectives (approximately 200 words).
4. Official transcripts of all college courses (must show cumulative GPA).
5. A reference from your academic advisor (or professor) regarding your scholastic achievements and potential as an intern (must be enclosed in a sealed envelope with your advisor's signature over the flap).
6. A reference from a current or former employer, preferably from within your field of interest (must be enclosed in a sealed envelope with your employer's signature over the flap).
Please send items 1-3 together. Please have transcripts sent directly to the address below. Recommendation letters may either be emailed to EDU-studies@longwoodgardens.org or mailed to the address below. Only complete applications will be considered.

Curator of Exhibits and Collections
Bell County Museum
Belton, TX
The Curator works under the supervision of the Director to plan, design and build exhibits, care for the museum collection and other tasks as requested.
I. SKILLS:
Master[1]s degree in history, museum science and/or related discipline preferred. At least four years experience as museum curator, registrar, and/or exhibit designer. Must have knowledge of current cataloguing techniques and collections management systems used by the American Association of Museums. Must have ability to use conservation techniques in the preservation of museum collection. Must have ability to perform methodological research and both academic writing and writing for the general public. The ability to work with a wide variety of individuals is necessary, as is having a working knowledge of computerization. Must be detail-oriented and flexible.

II. EFFORT:

- Conducts research and determines artifacts appropriate for new exhibits that can be borrowed or utilized from the museum collection
- Assists in conducting research for possible booking of traveling exhibits
- Works with lending agencies to coordinate shipping, condition reporting and installation of traveling exhibits
- Works with outside service providers for additional assistance with exhibit production (carpenters, printers, graphic designers)
- Writes and produces exhibit labels, title panels and other text
- Plans and prepares exhibit layout (includes de-installing previous exhibit and setting up new exhibit furniture), and prepares artifacts for display (which includes cleaning and properly mounting artifacts)
- Installs exhibits
- Works closely with potential donors of gifts to museum collection
- Produces and maintains accurate donation and loan documentation, and corresponds with donors
- Catalogs and maintains accurate records of the museum collection (hard copy and computer database); includes photodocumentation and the museum¹s collections management software program
- Performs minor conservation work, such as deacidification and encapsulation of historic documents, cleaning artifacts
- Maintains storage area by ongoing inventory of collections, organization and implementation of proper storage techniques, and tracking collections within the museum facilities
- Continues cataloguing the "old collection," which includes researching artifact provenance and determining donor
- Answers research questions for the public, and allows access of collection materials to various public entities (chamber of commerce, news media) for various projects and publications
- Works with Director and education coordinator to design educational programs
- Conducts tours as needed
- Greets public
- Makes bookstore sales
- Recommends possible purchases to augment museum collection
- Assists in building maintenance, including replacing bulbs, clean-up, etc.
- Assists in special events, such as receptions, fundraisers, etc.

RESPONSIBILITY:

- Responsible for exhibit maintenance and repairs, including repairing damaged labels, replacing light bulbs, and cleaning cases and artifacts
- Supervises volunteers in the installation of exhibits
- Responsible for ongoing rotation of artifacts and text in permanent exhibits
- Organizes and conducts Collection Committee meetings on a quarterly basis
- Trains and supervises some volunteers and non-county funded employees (including JTPA students, UMHB work-study students, and community service workers) working with collections
- Ensures that collections, valued at $500,000, are secure from theft, vandalism, or environmental damage; monitors collections and exhibit areas for temperature and humidity fluctuations and possible pest infestations
- Coordinates with lenders to pick up and return artifacts on loan to the museum
- Coordination of conversion from outdated museum computer database to new database; ensures that records of collection are duplicated on the county¹s AS 400 system
- Helps coordinate move of objects and equipment into the new storage areas
- Responsible for maintaining up-to-date policy and forms relating to the collection
- Helps maintain building security
- Scans images for public, for museum needs, works with entities who wish to publish or reproduce images from the collection
- Serves on the museum¹s Speaker¹s Bureau

Please send resume, a writing sample, and references to: Curator Selection Committee, P.O. Box 1381, Belton, Texas 76513. Position begins March 15 or until filled.

Library Director
Beloit Public Library
Beloit, WI
Apply by 3/15
For your consideration: The Beloit Public Library (BPL) seeks a dynamic library director who will make a commitment to a vital community that has a strong sense of public service, values its educational institutions and is willing to invest in itself. The Beloit Public Library serves a diverse community of 37,000 from a 54,000 sq ft. building constructed in 2009. Robust library support provided $1.5M in private funding for the project. The director of the Beloit Public Library must be a powerful advocate for the library, able to work successfully with elected officials, community leaders and stakeholders. The successful candidate will excel at communicating effectively, building partnerships, empowering staff and collaborating with other area agencies; a librarian who articulates, supports and promotes the library's mission to provide a complete spectrum of information to the community through a variety of materials, programs, appropriate technology, and a well-trained staff. The Library also requires a strong operational manager who is financially astute and understands today's economic realities. The Beloit Public Library has a staff of 50 employees, collection of over 154,800 items and a 2012 operating budget of approximately $2,150,000. The city of Beloit, conveniently located near Madison, Milwaukee and Chicago, fosters a culture of learning through its historic downtown, public art, symphony orchestra and many museums. Beloit is home to Beloit College, the oldest private college in Wisconsin. Proud volunteerism in the many social and service organizations including the Friends of Beloit Library and the Beloit Public Library Foundation is a mainstay of the city. Covering 17 sq. miles, Beloit has all the amenities of a large city with a small town affordability.

Visit www.visitbeloit.comor www.greaterbeloitchamber.com for more information. Minimum Qualifications: MLS from an ALA accredited library education program, plus 7 years professional library experience (preferably at public libraries) with demonstrated management ability in administration, budgeting, planning and supervision. The successful candidate will have a strong philosophy of customer service, the ability to attract and maintain a talented staff, and embrace the library's values, including innovation, trust, staff participation and team management. Salary: Minimum $70,000, depending on qualifications, plus extraordinary benefits. Send cover letter, resume and three professional references by March 15, 2013 to: Lynn Elam at LynnElamConsulting.com, Inc., lelam@lynnelamconsulting.com

Archives & Library Internships, Summer 2013
Yellowstone National Park
Yellowstone National Park, WY
Apply by 2/15
Yellowstone National Park is seeking two interns for summer 2013: one for the archives and one for the research library. The interns will gain practical experience working in their professional field and will be mentored by professional staff in each discipline. Interns will function as an entry-level employee and will be expected to conduct himself/herself with professional dress and demeanor and adhere to a 40-hour work week as determined by the supervisors.
Stipend: Interns will be paid a stipend of $2500, plus housing, via our partner the Yellowstone Park Foundation.
Duration: The positions are full-time (40 hours per week) for 10 weeks, with the schedule and starting date negotiable.
Housing & Transportation: Shared park housing is assigned for this position. There is no public transportation; an automobile is required for transportation to and from work.
Application Procedure: Applicants must specify to which internship they are applying and submit the application to the appropriate contact as indicated below. Applicants interested in both internships must submit a separate application for each position. Applicants must submit the following: Cover letter (outlining related experience, professional goals and/or reasons for applying to this internship), resume, list of three professional references, and an unofficial copy of your transcript.
Application Deadline: Application materials must be received via email or postmarked no later than February 15, 2013. Email is accepted. See below for specific contact information.
Security: Since 9/11, the federal government has required background investigations on all employees using computers, including interns and volunteers. The successful applicant must complete a background investigation form and be finger-printed by a law enforcement agency.
Archives Internship: Duties will include assisting with processing: arranging, preserving, and describing archival collections in the park's collections management database. The intern will also spend time at the reference desk, providing reference assistance and security oversight of collections in use, as well as contributing to outreach programs such as facility tours. The intern will be an integral part of the archives staff for the summer and will be involved in all aspects of the archives program. The intern will be supervised and evaluated by the park archivist.
Qualifications: Applicants must also be current students in a graduate archives program, who (if the successful candidate) are able to provide proof of continuing enrollment in an accredited college or university in order to be eligible.

Learning and Curriculum Support Librarian
University of Guelph
Guelph, ON, Canada
Apply by 2/14
Position Description: The University of Guelph Library is seeking a dynamic and innovative librarian to fill the role of Learning & Curriculum Support Librarian (Blended Learning). Reporting to the Manager, Information Literacy, the Learning & Curriculum Support Librarian (Blended Learning) holds an ALA-accredited MLS degree (or equivalent) and has additional educational qualifications or demonstrated experience in information literacy, educational technologies and/or educational design, and academic libraries. As a part of the Learning & Curriculum Support team (L&CS), the Learning & Curriculum Support Librarian (Blended Learning) will support the enhancement of information literacy programs and services at the University of Guelph Library. Working in a collaborative, team-based environment, s/he will design and deliver a range of programs and services to meet the needs of students and faculty in regards to information literacy, and will play a lead role in the area of blended or hybrid learning/e-learning. Under the direction of the Manager, Information Literacy, s/he will maintain awareness of key developments in technology related to teaching and learning (e.g., learning object repositories, mobile technologies, learning management systems, social software), investigate best practices, and make recommendations regarding effective program development and assessment as the Library moves to a blended or hybrid model for information literacy programs and services. S/he will create learner-centered online learning objects for information literacy, such as tutorials, screencasts, and widgets. As required, s/he will provide in-service training on the use of learning technologies for other Library staff who contribute to the programs and services of the L&CS unit. S/he may also be assigned responsibility for other projects or initiatives to advance and support the work of the team and the Library. As members of the University of Guelph Faculty Association, librarians work within the terms and conditions of employment as governed by the "Collective Agreement between the University of Guelph and the University of Guelph Faculty Association." This is an academic appointment and the successful candidate will be expected to participate in appropriate professional, scholarly, and service activities. Qualifications: Required: An ALA-accredited MLS/MLIS degree (or equivalent); A minimum of eight months' experience designing and delivering information literacy programs and services in an academic library setting ; Broad knowledge of information sources in a variety of disciplines; Knowledge of best practices in information literacy programs and services for academic libraries; Demonstrated experience in using web and multimedia technologies, including course management systems, presentation tools, and media production tools; Demonstrated project management experience. Preferred: An educational background or formal training in education, educational design, educational technology or e-learning; Professional experience in supporting students and faculty in Business (Economics, Finance, Marketing), Science or Engineering; The successful candidate will have the following knowledge, skills and experience: strong oral and written communications skills; strong technology skills; creative thinking and problem-solving abilities; excellent interpersonal skills; a commitment to working in a collaborative team environment; the ability to multi-task a variety of responsibilities and projects and to be flexible and adaptable in a variety of professional contexts; a current awareness of trends and issues in higher education and academic libraries. Application Procedure: The position will be filled at the Assistant Librarian level. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience; the 2012-13 salary floor for an Assistant Librarian is $63,659. A comprehensive benefits package is provided. Please submit a curriculum vitae, the names of at least three referees and a broad statement of interest in a single PDF file by 5 p.m. EST, Friday, February 15, 2013, to: Sandra Shore, Personnel and Administration, University of Guelph Library,50 Stone Road East, Guelph, ON N1G 2W1, Canada, Email: sshore@uoguelph.ca.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. The University of Guelph is committed to equity in its policies, practices, and programs; supports diversity in its teaching, learning and work environments; and ensures that applications for members of underrepresented groups are seriously considered under its employment equity policy. All qualified individuals who would contribute to the further diversification of our University community are encouraged to apply.

Instructional Technology Assistant – Part-Time
American University of Paris
Paris, France
The Academic Research Center, a merged research, writing, peer-tutoring and digital technology environment, is seeking a service-oriented part-time assistant with instructional design skills. This position provides support for ARC instructional services, including the Blackboard online course management system, interactive teaching and learning tools and peer-tutoring programs, including the Writing Lab. DUTIES: Provides support for faculty and student use of instructional technologies, including the Blackboard LMS (learning management system); participates in course-site creation. Provides technical assistance in the Group Study room and the ARC iSpace; creates user documentation and training workshops for teaching and learning tools. Assists with interviewing/scheduling/training of ARC peer-tutors. Creates content for ARC and Writing Lab services and special events, via digital media and creative design software; updates content for AUP networks, Facebook and AUP Web. Administrative Tasks as assigned, including: Assists with ARC accounting, equipment inventory and grant recipient records. Provides technical assistance for ARC surveys and statistical reports. Assists with orientation, special events, workshops and disability services. Uploads course enrolments to Blackboard. Maintains ARC photo archive. MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Bachelor's degree or higher (Master's preferred). Familiarity with the Apple/Mac OS environment and MS Office Suite. Expertise in Adobe Creative Suite, especially Photoshop and InDesign (CS4 and above). Native English speaker (bilingual English/French appreciated). Administrative experience: 3-5 years in an academic, publishing or e-commerce setting. Ability to work confidently in an international environment and to collaborate effectively and courteously with faculty, tutors and students. Valid EU working papers (not student visa working papers). PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: An interest in e-Learning, Web 2.0 tools and mobile applications. Prior experience with Web design. Background in digital media: photography, graphic design, video production. Familiarity with the North American system of higher education. Part-time position, 20 hours per week. Some flexibility (occasional evening or weekend) required for workshops and special events. Interested candidates should contact ARC Director, Ann Murphy Borel (arc@aup.edu).

Library Intern
Bermuda Institute of Ocean Sciences
Ferry Reach, Bermuda
The Bermuda Institute of Ocean Sciences (BIOS) has funding to support a library internship in 2013 for their library in Bermuda and this email serves as an announcement of the position and an invitation to qualified students to apply. BIOS' mission is to transform the fields of oceanography, marine science, and ocean health through a blend of cutting edge research, comprehensive educational experiences and a commitment to share our knowledge internationally (www.bios.edu<http://www.bios.edu>). Our small campus library, the Edward Laurens Mark Memorial Library, was founded in 1947 by our Board of Trustees and is used by BIOS staff and visiting students as well as the occasional members of the public. Until 2012 we increased our collection of journals, text books, scientific literature and information pertinent to Bermuda wherever possible. In 2012 we took the decision to considerably downsize the collection and to eliminate materials that had digital access and any holdings not specifically relevant Research and Education Programs. As a result, the library is in need of being reorganized and catalogued. BIOS has not employed a full time librarian in recent years and there are several other administrative tasks that also need attention. BIOS is seeking applications from library science undergraduates or recent graduates seeking a spring or summer internship in 2013. Tasks that the intern will be expected to accomplish include in brief: Faculty Published Material Contribution numbers; Consolidate records; Compile recent .pdfs; Send all outstanding recent .pdfs to local libraries; Update the library catalogue catalog; Knowledge of Library World and Filemaker Pro useful; Shipment of remaining journals; Update DVD/Video collection catalog; Fulfill any IAMSLIC interlibrary loan requests; Rearrange/Reorganize collection; Implement an electronic checking system; Update library operations manual; Compile the final student papers from the last two years; Maintain library including printer, drop-box, newspapers and store room. The position is fully funded (not including insurance) and will include return air travel to Bermuda and from the US or Canada, room and board and a stipend of $150 per week to cover miscellaneous expenses. The position is currently funded for 6 weeks but there is the potential for the duration to be extended which will be assessed after four weeks. The start date for this internship is not fixed but should fall between March 15 and May 15, 2013 depending upon the most suitable candidate's availability. Interested parties should apply in writing to Chloe Newcomb Hodgetts (chloe.nh@bios.edu) with Edward Laurens Mark Memorial Library Internship? in the subject line. Applications should include a cover letter detailing the applicant's desire for the position and highlighting relevant experience and education. Attached to the email please provide a CV and two letters of reference from qualified referees. This represents a fantastic opportunity for an undergraduate or recent graduate to take ownership of a challenging project that will provide substantial satisfaction and achievement upon completion of what will be a very hands-on and involved position with considerable responsibility, hopefully constituting a fabulous learning experience that will enhance any candidate's resume. The fact that BIOS does not employ a qualified librarian means that the successful candidate will be working alone for the majority of the time with minimal direction, but with the assistance and support of BIOS' Education Coordinator; this will require the candidate to be highly motivated and disciplined and will require substantial knowledge of archiving practices and associated software. We look forward to receiving applications, any questions may similarly be directed to chloe.nh@bios.edu
