About the Position

The Director of Academic Services, University Library provides leadership, planning, and administration for instruction and research support and manages librarians in their liaison roles. This position guides the development and implementation of services and initiatives that respond to the needs of students, researchers and scholars. The Director will work successfully with SJSU (and at times CSU) faculty, staff, students, and other administrators to implement the Library's strategic vision. S/he has a knowledge and interest in the evolving roles of academic libraries in the changing landscape of higher education, a commitment and ability to build partnerships with key stakeholders, and is committed to deeply infusing the value of diversity and inclusive excellence. The Director collaborates with the San Jose Public Library (SJPL) to implement collaborative services.
