Associate in Publishing Rights and Rental / ECS Publishing / Fenton, MO / Associate in Publishing Rights and Rental, Organization: ECS Publishing Group, Description & Details: Principal Function: The Associate in Publishing Rights and Rental oversees all functions related to rental and rights management of publications for the music publishing companies of ECS Publishing Group. This includes managing rental library circulation, filling orders, preparing music, and maintaining licensing, publishing rights, and copyright requirements. Close relationships and strong communication with arts organizations and composers is essential. The ideal candidate will be an energetic self-starter who is organized, efficient, and courteous. Responsibilities: Manage organization and circulation of the ECS Publishing Group rental library. Take orders for music on rental and serve as the main point of contact for major orchestras, opera companies, universities, community groups, schools, and churches throughout the rental period. Track orders, ship dates, returns, and overdue items including anticipating scheduling during high volume seasons. Provide price quotes, perusal items, contracts, and licenses to customers, using a Microsoft Access database, other Microsoft Office programs, and book publishing and accounting software. Respond to customer inquiries regarding musical editions, performance requirements, adaptations, and licensing. Collaborate with the Director of Marketing to promote performances. Correspond with composers as significant performances occur, customer questions arise, and works undergo revision. Print, bind, prepare, and repair sheet music for rental. Prepare contracts and invoices for shipments, and process returns. Facilitate smooth distribution on behalf of companies and composers that ECS Publishing Group holds agreements with but does not directly oversee. Manage the administration of publishing rights, including regular reporting to all licensing agencies and issuing of grand rights, mechanical, synchronization, reprint, and arrangement licenses. Register copyrights and coordinate the flow of contracts and royalties related to publications. Maintain archive of programs and rights correspondence. Monitor department statistics, creating analytical reports for both rental and rights demonstrating trends and areas for improvement and innovation. As required: Travel to conventions, set up merchandise display, provide customer support and respond to inquiries, operate point of sale equipment. Other duties as assigned. Staff Relationships: Responsible to the President. Responsible for collegial relationships with all ECS Publishing Group employees. Work closely with the Director of Marketing/senior advisor to the rental department. Communicate effectively with the editorial team regarding new publications and errata. Communicate effectively with warehouse staff on rental orders and printing. Collaborate with the Financial Officer regarding royalties. Collaborate with the Opera Consultant and the Strings Specialist. Knowledge bachelor's degree in music with a strong background in orchestra is required. Requires knowledge of common practices and standards used in a performance library. Some experience with printing and binding equipment helpful. Familiarity with InDesign and issue is a plus, but not required. Knowledge of copyright and licensing will be helpful. Skills/Qualifications: The position requires the ability to learn quickly, strong organizational skills, attention to detail, the ability to communicate effectively over the phone and in writing, excellent computer skills, some comfort with negotiation, strong math skills, and the ability to answer musical inquiries. Requires the ability to read, write, and understand contracts. Physical Demands/Abilities: Work is performed while standing, sitting, and/or walking. Some bending, squatting, climbing, and reaching to retrieve products. Work environment includes both an office environment and light warehouse work. Requires the ability to lift and carry weights up to 30 pounds. Requires use of warehouse machinery including printers, cutters, binders, and stair-ladders. ECS Publishing Group is the corporate parent of music publishers E. C. Schirmer Music Company, Galaxy Music Corporation, and MorningStar Music Publishers. Publications span all genres of classical and sacred music, with a specialty in choral music. ECSPG also holds a record label, Arsis Audio, and partners with its in-house distributing company, Canticle Distributing. The music produced by these companies is marketed to a large network of music dealers, as well as to professional musicians in universities, schools, churches, and major ensembles. How to Apply / Contact: To apply, please send resume, cover letter, and three references to: ECS Publishing Group, Attn: Human Resources, 1727 Larkin Williams Rd., Fenton, MO 63026, E-mail: hr@ecspublishing.com, 1-800-647-2117

Imaging Services Specialist / The Menil Collection / Houston, TX / Imaging Services Specialist - The Menil Collection, Houston, TX, Title: Imaging Services Specialist, Department: Collection Management, Reports to: Digital Asset Manager. The Menil Collection seeks a qualified individual to support the Department of Collection Management with rights and reproductions requests. General Responsibilities: The Imaging Services Specialist processes internal and external requests for images of objects in the collection to be reproduced, seeing requests through from initial contact to providing deliverables. This public-facing position plays an important role in fostering the institution's relationships with artists, other museums, and the general public. The Imaging Services Specialist also assists with special projects such as ARTstor image contributions, a large-scale museum-wide digitization initiative, and implementation of digital asset management software. Specific Duties: Respond to public requests for photographic material to be reproduced. Initiate rights and reproductions contracts and invoices and establish rates for usage. Maintain databases, process signed agreements and payments, and track receipt of copies of publications. Assist with research and resolve copyright permission issues related to the reproduction and filming of collection objects for print, website, and press use. Update licensing and photography agreements as needed. Work with various museum departments to secure copyright permission for reproductions featured in Menil Collection publications. Assess digital image files for quality assurance purposes and identify images that need to be rescanned or photographed from their original formats. Research, vet, enter, and update copyright credits and photography credits in the collection management database, The Museum System (TMS). Research, vet, enter, and update image metadata into digital asset management software. Qualifications: A BA in an arts-related field such as Art History, Museum Studies, or Media Studies, and knowledge or appreciation of art and architecture is preferred. 2-3 years' experience in a rights and reproductions role is highly desired, preferably at a museum, image archive, or other arts-related or non-profit organization. Excellent written and verbal communications skills, including the ability to professionally and diplomatically communicate with artists, artist foundations and estates, museums, artist rights societies such as ARS and VAGA, and the general public. Knowledge of intellectual property law, including "fair use" and similar copyright issues, is desired, as well as the ability to interpret and communicate copyright information to the layperson. Strong visual acuity, including the ability to notice flaws such as dust or digital artifacts in images. Basic understanding of digital still image file creation including image sizing, bit depth, color profiling, image resolution, compression, and creating derivatives. Working knowledge of digital archiving standards and best practices including file naming and embedding and extracting metadata into and from digital image files according to standards and workflows. Exceptional attention to detail and conscientiousness, including good proofreading skills and the ability to track complicated projects. Experience handling multiple deadline-driven projects simultaneously is preferred. Must enjoy working both collaboratively and independently. Basic knowledge of The Museum System (TMS) and digital asset management software preferred. Familiarity with Photoshop, Acrobat, Filemaker, and the Microsoft Office Suite, particularly Excel and Word. Ability to work on both Mac and PC. Salary and benefits competitive and commensurate with experience. Please send resume, cover letter, and salary expectations to: Director of Human Resources, The Menil Collection, 1511 Branard Street, Houston, Texas 77006. Application materials may also be emailed to: smmaloch@menil.org.
