2 jobs! Collections Strategist & Acquisitions and Electronic Resources Librarian, Grand Valley State University, Michigan- Apply by 10/25/ Grand Valley State University (GVSU) Libraries is seeking applications for two tenure-track faculty positions. The Acquisitions & Electronic Resources Librarian will provide strategic direction and leadership around the processes and purchase of library materials and the support and maintenance of electronic resources. The Acquisitions & Electronic Resources Librarian is a key member of the Systems & Discovery Department, which includes acquisitions, cataloging, discovery, technology, and electronic resource management. This position is responsible for coordinating the purchase, payment, and receiving of library materials, assisting in setting the library collections budget, coordinating the support and maintenance of electronic resources, and the investigation and implementation of new acquisition models. The Collection Strategist will manage renewal decisions on databases and journals, lead and conduct analysis of subscription resources, and maintain awareness of the GVSU curriculum in order to effectively align our collection practices to GVSU's academic programs. The Collection Strategist is a key member of the Collections and Digital Scholarship Department, which includes scholarly communications, university archives, digital collections, and digital preservation. These positions will give the selected candidate the opportunity to: CREATE-- The Collections Strategist and the Acquisitions & Electronic Resources Librarian will identify and implement new and emerging trends, best practices, and models in collections lifecycle management. These positions will help create new workflows, policies, and procedures that align with their areas of focus and anticipate the future needs of the Libraries.

ANALYZE--These positions will coordinate the collection of statistics and create reports to help analyze usage of library resources. This analysis will help to inform budget allocations and collections decisions to best meet the needs of a diverse campus. Additionally, as a faculty position, there will be opportunities to provide leadership on Library and University committees.

COLLABORATE--These positions will work collaboratively across the library to ensure our collections are accessible and meeting the needs of our users. These positions will provide opportunities to work with faculty, staff, and students across the University. We invite applicants who have a user-focused, innovative, and creative approach to their work.

GROW— GVSU librarians are full members of the university faculty; as such they must possess the potential to fulfill the University Libraries' requirements for promotion and tenure by engaging in scholarship and professional development and contributing service to the institution, including faculty governance. In support of this requirement, GVSU and the GVSU Libraries have a culture that encourages professional growth and development. Funding for conference travel and the dissemination of scholarly output is provided by both the Libraries and the University via internal grants. For more information on how GVSU supports travel and scholarship, please see the Pew Faculty Teaching and learning Center grants page at <https://www.gvsu.edu/ftlc/grants-47.htm> and the Center for Scholarly and Creative Excellence dissemination travel grant page at <https://www.gvsu.edu/csce/dissemination-travel-grant-13.htm>.

Communications Officer / International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA) / The Hague, The Netherlands / Apply by 10/19 / Communications Officer: The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA) Headquarters is looking for an experienced Communications Officer to join a dynamic international team undertaking global projects. Over the next ten years, IFLA aims to transform the library field and itself through concerted and coordinated efforts at the global, regional, and national level. The ultimate benefit of this work will be seen at the local level through better library services helping more people gain literacy, improve their education, find employment, improve their health, etc. IFLA has outlined a number of activities to initiate this transformation and a key to their success will be the ability to enhance communications and connections between IFLA, its organisational members and individual librarians around the world. The activities will contribute to strengthening the IFLA brand. By enhancing the impact of its communication actions, IFLA also seeks to widen its audience beyond library and information professionals, attracting international organisations, government, and business. Location: IFLA Headquarters is located in The Hague (next to The Hague Central Station) in The Netherlands. Key areas of Responsibility: This position is part of the Communications Team and will be responsible for increasing IFLA's effectiveness in communicating with internal and external stakeholders regarding project activities and overall IFLA initiatives. A key goal will be to support the implementation of IFLA's communication strategy by providing creative ideas and achieving them in the most effective way. Qualifications and Experience: At least 5 years of experience covering various aspects of communications activities, Excellent written & verbal communications and presentation skills in English (native speaker desirable), Sound knowledge of software, processes and procedures needed for communications and PR, Digital communication skills, including social media and website development, writing, editing and delivering web content, Ability to think and write creatively, approach communication from new angles, and put the ideas into practice, Strong teamwork skills. Additionally, the candidate will have: Experience with the use of CMS (e.g. WordPress, Drupal), Ability to script, shoot, edit and publish original digital media—requiring experience with video equipment and Adobe Premiere, etc. (in house), Experience with animated video platforms/applications, Experience with scripting videos for outsourced video production, Analytical skills, with the ability to interpret and visualise data, Experience in working within an international NGO organization, Knowledge / awareness of issues in the information environment / the library profession. Salary: The gross monthly salary offered will be EUR 3,605 per month in line with the Collective Agreement of Public Libraries in The Netherlands. You will also receive a holiday allowance (8% of your annual salary), an end of year bonus and enjoy 25 days of holidays per year. You will also participate in IFLA's group pension scheme. Closing date: The closing date is 19 October 2018. Due to the high volume of applications we are expecting to receive, interested candidates are advised to submit their applications as soon as possible. How to apply: Please send your CV including a motivation letter addressing the responsibilities and skills required for the position in English to vacancies@ifla.org . Only candidates with valid documentation to work in The Netherlands will be considered.
