S/he is responsible for cataloging and classifying all formats of library materials, assisting in the maintenance of the library's integrated library system and providing support to library staff related to other library technology and technical and circulation services functions. This is a full-time position and the successful candidate must have knowledge and demonstrated experience with current cataloging principles and practices as well as maintaining and troubleshooting computer hardware and software. Associate's degree in library technology or bachelor's degree, and 3 years of public library experience in technical services. Knowledge of SirsiDynix a plus. Salary commensurate with experience, beginning at $43,480; 35 hrs./wk.; excellent benefits. Please send application (available at www.waterfordct.org or Human Resources Dept., Waterford Town Hall) to Director of Human Resources, Town of Waterford, 15 Rope Ferry Road, Waterford, CT 06385 by November 16, 2018. E.O.E.

Executive Director - The Farmington Libraries. 11/7/ The Farmington Libraries is searching for a new Executive Director. In the last 40 years the Farmington Libraries has had two Executive Directors. After an extensive career in library services, the current director is retiring. The position reports to the Library Board of Trustees. This is a full time position with a competitive salary and benefits package. Introduction: The Town of Farmington is a residential suburb in the greater Hartford area, located along the scenic Farmington River. This historic town is home to 25,340 residents, scenic bike and walking trails, the Hill-Stead Museum and Stanley-Whitman House. The Farmington Libraries, while sharing a unique relationship with the Town of Farmington and the Farmington Village Green and Library Association (FVGLA), enjoy a strong community base, dedicated leadership, an excellent collection and an enthusiastic staff. Last year the Farmington Library and Barney Branch Library serviced over 223,000 visitors and circulated more than 314,000 items. The libraries also hosted 1200 programs with over 25,000 attendees. The Executive Director: The Executive Director provides both strategic and tactical leadership to the Board, the Libraries' working team and the Farmington community. This highly visible position requires a comprehensive understanding of library operations including management of library systems, human resources, facilities, information systems, communications and organizational operations. The Executive Director must possess effective interpersonal skills coupled with an ability to produce positive public relations outcomes. The Executive Director oversees an annual budget of approximately $2.7 million, and a staff of 14 full-time and 24 part-time positions. Responsibilities: Reporting to the Library Board of Trustees, the Executive Director oversees an organization where innovation and creativity are encouraged. The Executive Director's responsibilities include all aspects of operations and administration, with full responsibility for personnel, fiscal management, the development of operating and capital budgets, and establishing partnerships throughout the community while working collaboratively with the Board, FVGLA, the Town of Farmington, as well as other agencies, community groups and businesses. Qualifications: A Master's Degree in Library Science or Library Information Science from an ALA accredited program and five years of progressively responsible library experience. The candidate must understand our motto of "Service Beyond Expectations" along with possessing extraordinary people skills, the ability and desire to work in a culturally diverse community, team-building talent and superior verbal and written communication skills. The ideal Executive Director will be an outstanding leader, effective advocate, relationship-builder, collaborator, communicator, innovator and strategic thinker with demonstrated success in initiating and managing large-scale projects and proven success working with a governing board. Send letter of application and resume by November 7, 2018 to: Erica Robertson, Library Director Search Committee, 1 Monteith Drive, Farmington, CT 06032; RobertsonE@farmington-ct.org.
