Adult Services Librarian, Westergard Branch, Piscataway Public Library/ 10/19 The Adult Services Librarian is responsible for outreach and programming for adults and reference service to all ages at the Westergard Branch. As a member of the Adult Services Department, responsibilities also include collection development, participation on Library committees, and team projects. About Piscataway Public Library: Piscataway Township is located in Middlesex County, home to the Busch and Livingston campuses of Rutgers University-New Brunswick, and near the center of Einstein's Alley - central New Jersey's research and technology corridor. Boasting a richly diverse population of over 58,000, Piscataway is home to several large corporations, including Johnson & Johnson, Colgate-Palmolive, and IEEE. The Johanna W. Westergard Library is a vibrant neighborhood branch located in a walkable community near multiple schools and small businesses. There is high tween and teen attendance after school and a wide variety of well-attended children's programming is offered throughout the year. Piscataway Public Library is a statewide leader in public library service and has a tradition of providing pioneering programs and services. Piscataway Public Library nurtures leadership and innovation. Responsibilities: Effectively offering assistance in the informational needs of all ages, as well as computer support and readers advisory; Providing exceptional customer service at information desks; Representing the Library at community events; Planning, coordinating, and executing a variety of programs that meet the interests and needs of adults; Maintaining and evaluating monthly programming statistics; Actively participating in community conversations to better understand the interests and needs of the community, and assisting Library administration with improving programs and services; Collaborating with other Library departments to develop and administer programs and services; Providing support to all library staff in an effort to successfully provide service to children, teens and adults in a safe and welcoming environment; Continuing education to update professional skills via workshops and online webinars; Active participation in professional library associations

Qualifications: Master's Degree in Library Science (or equivalent) from an ALA accredited program; NJ Professional Librarian's Certificate

Demonstrated experience in the following areas: flexibility, initiative, teamwork, customer service, providing reference and technology assistance, and adult programming Ability to communicate clearly, courteously, and effectively with library patrons and staff

Interest in serving patrons of all ages. Schedule: The schedule for this position is 35 hours per week, including a regular evening, and weekend coverage on a rotating basis. Compensation: This is a 35 hours per week, full-time salaried exempt position. Minimum salary is $59,037. Piscataway Public Library offers generous paid leave, health and dental insurance, PERS, and a commitment to staff training and development. Notices: Equal Opportunity Employer. Applicant must comply with the "New Jersey First Act." To Apply: Email your cover letter, resume, and the names of three references to jobapplications@piscatawaylibrary.org and include Westergard Librarian in the Subject Line.
