Creation Station Coordinator / Libraries and Historical Resources / Sarasota, FL / Apply by 1/7 / Creation Station Coordinator. The Library Foundation for Sarasota County is looking for an energetic, enthusiastic, detail-oriented library-loving individual to manage and administer Creation Station makerspaces, a program expanding as a result of the Foundation's newest endowment campaign for Sarasota County Libraries. This individual will be an employee of the Foundation, and will work closely with Sarasota County Library System (SCLS) staff. The primary role of the Creation Station Coordinator is to work with SCLS staff responsible for Creation Station activities. The coordinator will provide leadership for the initiative at all Sarasota County Libraries, including planning, executing and measuring outcomes associated with Creation Stations. This includes everything from managing all resources involved in Creation Stations (such as ordering, tracking and creating inventories for supplies and equipment), as well as the reporting required for a significant grant that is helping make this initiative possible. This position includes, but is not limited to: Managing all aspects of the budget and acquisitions, including administration of grants; Preparing reports related to Creation Station participation and learning outcomes; Assisting and training libraries staff and patrons to use Creation Station resources, such as 3D printers, laser cutters, digitization equipment, Cricuts, Adobe Creative Suite Software, etc.; Assisting in the development and marketing of Creation Stations; Serving as the spokesperson for inquiries related to the initiative and representing the Library Foundation and Sarasota County Libraries to the public; Developing Creation Station outreach activities; and Developing relevant policies and procedures.

REQUIREMENTS: Bachelor's degree from an accredited university. Specialized knowledge or skills related to record keeping and/or the Maker Movement including but not limited to Windows, Mac OS and iOS, Adobe Creative Suite, 3D printing, coding, robotics, crafting, multi-media production, etc.,. Demonstrated ability to create library programming or similar educational activities and evaluating the outcomes, Knowledge of effective grant writing, monitoring and report preparation processes. Advanced knowledge of or extensive experience with creative learning, participatory learning, or collaborative learning theories and practices and their implications for library programming, Demonstrated proficiency to work effectively with diverse cultures and an ability to build partnerships with representatives of community organizations, Driver's license with safe driving record, Ability to pass a background check and substance screening.

PREFERRED REQUIREMENTS: Master's degree in Library and Information Science from an ALA accredited college or university, 1+ years of experience working with creative technology hardware, software and related tools (e.g. electronics and robotics kits; 3D design software and 3D printers; laser cutters; e-textiles; coding; electronic music production and animation software; and/or other creative technology tools) in a lab or educational setting is highly desirable.

ADDITIONAL KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS REQUIRED FOR THIS POSITION: Effective verbal and written communication skills are a priority, Excellent customer service skills, ability to multitask, ability to adapt to various and changing duties as required, Experience in a programming or technology-related position in a public library preferred, Skill in operating library technologies. Skill in using various technology devices and imparting this knowledge to customers, staff and volunteers of all ages, High degree of technological aptitude; familiarity with makerspace technology and concepts, Ability to create and deliver high-quality library programming for all ages, Knowledge of current trends in libraries and makerspaces, Experience building community partnerships, Ability to effectively troubleshoot and address a variety of hardware/software challenges

A detailed job description, including physical requirements, is available upon request. This position is part-time at 30 hours per week. It does not include benefits. Hourly rate is $15-20/hour. The Coordinator will be based at one of the library branches, with travel to all locations and a work space at the County Administration Center. The position will be managed jointly by the Library Foundation for Sarasota County and Sarasota County Libraries Administration. To apply, please send a resume and cover letter to Foundation Administrator Kim Noyes, at libraryfoundationforsarasota@gmail.com.

ABOUT US: The Library Foundation for Sarasota County is a 501(c)3 nonprofit founded in 2011 to secure the future of our Sarasota County Libraries as an indispensable community resource. Goals of the Foundation are to raise public awareness of the importance of our libraries; to generate private sector financial support to complement public tax funding; and to be a proponent for issues that promote the viability of our library system. Dean of Libraries / Alfred University / Alfred, NY / Apply by 1/28 / The Alfred University Libraries seek an innovative leader to join a highly engaged team in the midst of a self-initiated reorganization. We are looking for someone with strong skills in advocacy, communication, and collaboration to lead us in achieving a shared vision. Alfred University houses the New York State College of Ceramics, a Statutory College of the State of New York, creating a unique public-private partnership. One result of this distinctive arrangement is that Alfred's students, faculty, and staff are served by two libraries: The Samuel R. Scholes Library, which supports the School of Engineering and the School of Arts and Design, and Herrick Memorial Library, which supports the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, the College of Business, and AUNY (External Programs). The Dean of Libraries is the chief administrative and budgetary officer of the University Libraries (Scholes and Herrick) and plays a key role in working with faculty, other deans, the Provost, and the President to advance the mission of the Libraries in conjunction with the mission of Alfred University. Alfred University is a comprehensive university of 2,000 students, located in Western New York. Additional information is available at <https://alfred.edu>. An ALA-accredited MLS/MLIS or equivalent degree is required, as well as a minimum of seven years of professional experience in an academic library, with a record of increasing administrative and supervisory responsibility. For more information, visit: <https://libguides.alfred.edu/deansearch> Send letter of interest, résumé or CV, and contact information for three professional references (address, phone number, and email) as one PDF document to humanresources@alfred.edu with Dean of Libraries in the subject line. Review of candidates will begin on January 28, 2019, and continue until the position is filled.
