Member Relations Manager, Public & Special Libraries - Connecticut Library Consortium, Middletown, CT. 1/23, Are you a public or special librarian with a passion for discovering and utilizing the latest library resources, tools, and services to make library users' lives better? Are you ready to put your marketing savvy, research skills, customer service, and library enthusiasm to work for the betterment of public and special library staff and users across Connecticut? Do you have an MLS or MLIS from an ALA-accredited program (preferred) and at least 3 years' experience working in a public or special library setting? If so, the Connecticut Library Consortium (CLC) - a non-profit, statewide membership collaborative serving all types of Connecticut libraries - would like to hear from you. As one of CLC's Member Relations Managers, you will put your experience with and knowledge of libraries to use assisting CLC's public and special library members with the library products and services they need, want, and already have. You'll serve as the primary point of contact for our schools and special libraries, providing support through product marketing, training, and expert advice. You'll help coordinate our annual membership campaign, and you'll actively solicit members' ideas for new products and services to help them be successful. This position will get you out on the road visiting libraries, attending conferences and meetings, and hosting training events. You will have your finger on the pulse of CLC's public and special library membership! Full time. Apply by January 23, 2019. For further details, visit ctlibrarians.org/MRMPS
