YA Librarian / New Milford Public Library / New Milford, CT / Apply by 6/10 / YA Librarian - New Milford Public Library. The New Milford Public Library seeks an innovative Young Adult Librarian who is looking for an exciting and rewarding challenge – we are currently undergoing a renovation/modernization, and the YA Librarian will be instrumental in helping to create a brand new YA/Teen space, as well as contributing ideas for the Maker Space area. Excellent communication skills, media skills and a strong public service orientation are a must, along with an enjoyment of working with children, tweens, teens, and their parents and teachers. The Young Adult Librarian is responsible for YA programming; collection development of YA and Teen (grades 6 -12) materials; some children’s programming; and acts as an assistant to the Children’s Services Librarian. This is a full-time 40 hour a week position with excellent benefits that requires a minimum of one evening a week and two Sundays a month. The salary range is $43,680 - $46,119. New Milford Public Library serves a community of about 27,000 in Connecticut’s geographically largest town and is the largest library in a hub of smaller communities. Familiarity with the Evergreen ILS and consortia experience is preferred. Requirements are a MLIS or current enrollment in an accredited program. Please send your resume and cover letter to: sford@biblio.org no later than June 10, 2019. The New Milford Public Library is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Part-Time Library Legal Services Coordinator / The Law Office of Stephanie Adams, PLLC / Buffalo, NY
The Law Office of Stephanie Adams, PLLC, located in Buffalo, NY, serves numerous library clients, museums, and archives. Typical services for libraries include: on-demand legal advice to library boards and employees, seminars and training sessions, policy development, and emergency/subpoena response.

Under direct supervision of the attorney, this position will assist the attorney with coordination of those legal services. Essential duties will include: task organization, research, filing, document assembly, database creation/maintenance, and in collaboration with other support staff, scheduling and coordinating legal services for libraries, museums, and archives. Additional duties may include: answering phones, interacting with clients, handling general correspondence, and contributing to the law office's social media.

Qualifications: Significant (2 years or more) past library employment is essential. Ability to work with conventional office hardware and software is essential. Demonstrable ability to maintain confidentiality is essential. Demonstrable experience with conducting information searches and archiving information in easily searched digital and hard copy is essential (this requirement does not involve legal research skills). MLS or equivalent degree preferred, but not required. Bachelor's or equivalent degree required. Multi-lingual preferred. The position is expected to start at only five hours per week, with potential for more hours as workload demands. Due to the small number of hours, it is expected that the candidate may have limited availability; hours will be set in collaboration with the employee so long as they are during regular business hours and reliable from week-to-week. To Apply: Interested candidates should send a resume and letter of interest outlining prior library experience, past experience working in a confidential environment, contact information for a reference from past library employment, and why they would value such a position to: coordinator@losapllc.com. Interviews will be conducted in June.
