Law Library Director / Michigan State University College of Law / East Lansing, MI / Michigan State University College of Law seeks to hire a tenure-line or fixed-term faculty member to serve as Director of the College's Law Library, beginning with the 2020-21 academic year. the Director reports to the Law College Dean and will play a key managerial role in the life of the Law College by participating in law school administration and annual budget planning, by representing the Law College in a vibrant university environment, by working collaboratively with MSU Libraries, and by creating and advocating a strategic library vision. Leadership skills, combined with intellectual acuity and a strong system of academic values, are key attributes of the Director. The successful candidate will have a demonstrated expertise in technology, a reputation among peers for leadership and outstanding professional achievement, as well as a strong commitment to supporting faculty research and the larger mission of the Law College and University. The successful candidate's qualifications will determine faculty status, including tenure eligibility and rank. Minimum qualifications include a JD from an ABA-accredited law school and a Masters in Library Science from an ALA-accredited library school. (Equivalent credentials and/or institutions are acceptable.). Michigan State University is the nation's premier land-grant university, established in 1855. The MSU College of Law, established in 1891 as the Detroit College of Law and closely affiliated with MSU since 1996, will be fully integrated as a constituent MSU college as of July 1, 2020. More information about the Law College can be found at www.law.msu.edu .MSU is committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity. The University actively encourages applications from and nominations of women; persons of color; trans, non-binary and/or gender non-conforming persons; veterans; and persons with disabilities. Information on the application process, which will be through Michigan State University Human Resources, will be available shortly. In the meantime, questions may be addressed to: Prof. Michael Lawrence, Chair, Library Director Search Committee, Michigan State University College of Law, c/o Marie Gordon, 648 N. Shaw Ln., Rm. 465, Michigan State University College of Law, East Lansing, Michigan 48824, mgordon@law.msu.edu. MSU and MSU COLLEGE OF LAW ARE AFFIRMATIVE ACTION/EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYERS.

Updated June 2019. The Head of Public Services & Technology works under the direction and supervision of the Library Director. This individual is responsible for expanding the library's outreach to teens and adults through thoughtful and effective use of emerging technologies, creating and maintaining web-based and real-time public services for patrons. Responsibilities include: Assists with day to day operations pertaining to technology, teen/YA services, and reference questions. Provides reference and reader's advisory guidance to adult, young adult, and teen patrons. Assists and instructs patrons in using library services, equipment, technology and facilities. Supports in planning and conducting teen/YA and adult programs as requested. Maintains the library website, ensuring information is accurate and current. Attends professional and community meetings, workshops, and conferences as requested. Assists Director in promoting library use through bibliographies, displays, and other special projects. Recommends books and other materials for acquisition and withdrawal. Participates in maintenance of the teen/YA and reference collection through consultation with staff. Works one-on-one with patrons and staff regarding technology and reference questions. Keeps current in the latest developments in library technology - teaching and creating an innovative inquiry-based information literacy and technology literacy instruction program. Develops reading, reference, and research collection through selection of books, materials, and equipment. Promotes interest in the library as a community resource by visiting and speaking to schools, civic, cultural, and social organizations; advocates for the library in and around the local community. Plans, organizes, and runs special programs involving the use of library resources. Interacts with community resources to enhance patron information opportunities. Manages the library's circulated laptops, regularly updating machines, and troubleshooting basic issues. Investigates and responds to grant opportunities when available. Works closely with the educational community to provide systematic exchange of information. Assists patrons in meeting information requests and needs, and assists with circulation as needed. Performs other duties as assigned. Requirements, Knowledge & Abilities: Requirements – ALA-accredited MLIS or equivalent degree, with at least 2 years of library experience. Knowledge – General practices and procedures, library classification systems and automated circulation systems, Microsoft Office software and computer equipment, delivering information literacy instruction, and the principles of library practices and procedures. Also, must understand emerging technology, faxes, and copiers and be able to perform troubleshooting. Abilities – Be courteous and tactful with the public, communicate effectively verbally and in writing, establish and maintain working relationships with patrons, employees, vendors, DCLS staff, Borough employees, and the public. To implement policy and procedure, to exercise initiative and judgement in completing tasks, to maintain confidentiality, and address staff and patron issues respectfully. Additional ability to train employees, stand for long periods of time, lift and move up to 25 pounds, and move materials from both lower and higher shelves. Provide close attention to detail despite interruptions, set priorities, meet deadlines, and delegate effectively. Compensation: $40,000 – 45,000 depending on experience, plus excellent benefits. To apply, please email resume and cover letter to ladirector@delcolibraries.org by 8/1/2019. No phone calls, please.
