Librarian I / Olean Public Library / Olean NY/ 10/7 / Librarian I (Full-Time)-Adult Programming Librarian- $38,630 annually plus benefits- The Olean Public Library, located in the beautiful Southern Tier region of Western New York, seeks an innovative, creative individual to oversee and run programs for adults. This position is also responsible for supervision of paraprofessional programming staff, coordinating the monthly newsletter, scheduling gallery exhibits, assisting at customer service desks, collection development areas, and may involve occasional grant writing. The adult programming librarian also collaboratively plans multi-age programs and/or outreach events with other staff members. Applicants should be proficient in the use of technology and social media applications. Flexibility to work some evenings and Saturdays is required. Minimum Qualifications: Master's degree in library/information science from an accredited American Library Association institution, or recognized by the New York State Education Department as following accepted education practices. Possession of the New York State Public Librarian Certificate by the time of appointment. Desirable Qualifications: Knowledge of diverse programming for adults of all ages; an interest in providing programs for marginalized members of the community; experience collaboratively planning events and programs; customer service experience. Position will be filled based on Civil Service requirements. Appointment to the position is provisional pending successful competition and placement on the eligibility list established through the Civil Service Examination process. This is a training and experience rated exam which will be held at a date following appointment to the position. To apply, submit a cover letter, resume, and three professional references to director@oleanlibrary.org. Deadline to apply is October 7, 2019. For more information about the Olean Public Library, visit www.oleanlibrary.org.
