Executive Assistant / The Russell Library / Middletown, CT / Apply by 11/15 at 4pm / Executive Assistant - The Russell Library (Middletown, CT) is seeking an executive assistant to support the Library Director and executive managers. If you are passionate about public libraries, have exceptional organizational skills, and are an experienced administrative professional, we want to talk to you. Middletown is a vibrant, growing and extremely diverse community of nearly 48,000 residents, located on the Connecticut River, in the center of the Nutmeg State. Home to two colleges and universities, a thriving downtown, a rich cultural and dining scene, and a unique combination of urban, suburban and rural life, Middletown has something to offer everyone. Founded in 1875, the Russell Library is a 501(c)3 organization that serves as the principal public library for the City of Middletown, with a full range of services aimed at 21st-century users. The Library Board of Trustees and library staff are currently engaged in a strategic planning process to set a course for success in community transformation in the coming years. The executive assistant must be creative and enjoy working in a small entrepreneurial environment that is mission-driven, results-oriented and community-focused. They must exercise good judgment in a variety of situations, with strong written and verbal communication, administrative, and organizational skills, and the ability to maintain balance among multiple priorities. The incumbent is expected to work independently on projects, from conception to completion, and must be able to work under pressure at times to handle a wide variety of activities and confidential matters with discretion. The executive assistant develops mutual trust and builds a courteous, respectful and compassionate team environment with other staff members, organizational leaders, funders and visitors. The executive assistant should also be a strong supporter of the Library's cause and must be comfortable collaborating with other external agencies for the benefit of the community. The incumbent will perform numerous human resource and financial tasks, including but not limited to: posting open positions and scheduling interviews, employment paperwork, payroll, petty cash, and balancing duties. The executive assistant is a 40 hour-per-week, non-union position. Qualifications: Strong organizational skills that reflect an ability to perform and prioritize multiple tasks seamlessly with excellent attention to detail. Very strong interpersonal skills and the ability to build relationships with stakeholders, including staff, board members, external partners and donors. Working knowledge of human resource and financial tasks, including but not limited to: posting open positions and scheduling interviews, employment paperwork, payroll, petty cash, and balancing duties. Excellent written and verbal communication skills. Demonstrated proactive approaches to problem-solving with strong decision-making capability. Highly resourceful team-player, with the ability to also be extremely effective independently. Proven ability to handle confidential information with discretion, be adaptable to various competing demands, and demonstrate the highest level of customer/client service and response. Demonstrated ability to achieve high performance goals and meet deadlines in a fast paced environment. Forward looking thinker, who actively seeks opportunities and proposes solutions. Education and Experience Requirements: Bachelor's degree required. Strong work tenure: five to 10 years of experience supporting senior managers, preferably in a non-profit organization. Experience and interest in internal and external communications, partnership development and fundraising, and HR and financial administrative tasks. Proficient in Microsoft Office (Outlook, Word, Excel, and Power Point), Adobe Acrobat, and social media platforms. Experience with fundraising systems a plus (Little Green Light, Network for Good, etc.). Compensation: This position offers a salary commensurate with experience and education, and an accompanying health & retirement package. Resume and cover letter must be submitted by 4:00 pm, November 15, 2019 to: Brandie Doyle, Assistant Director for Administrative Services, bdoyle@russelllibrary.org.

Records Management Facilitator Internship/ The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Kaua'i National Wildlife Refuge Complex located in Kīlauea, Hawai'i/ This application is for the Kaua'i position. SUMMARY: The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Kaua'i National Wildlife Refuge Complex located in Kīlauea, Hawai'i is looking for a Records Management Facilitator to assist in organizing our holdings. Our offices have extensive historical files spanning decades, which document the management, political history, and scientific research surrounding the three national wildlife refuges on Kaua'i. The collections consist of analog and digital records, maps, photographs, and other mixed media. We are looking for conscientious, resourceful, and motivated information professionals to assess, review, digitize, upload, and organize the KNWRC records. The records management facilitators will be responsible for following a records schedule, organizing and digitizing files, keeping a records inventory, and disposing of files accordingly. You will gain hands-on experience with electronic records, preservation, digitization, metadata, records management, and content management systems. You will also gain experience prioritizing tasks, collaborating with others, establishing guidelines, and training other staff in records management tasks. Interns will prioritize the continued management of U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service records. For example, they will continue the goal of creating a sustainable filing system, digitize and purge records, as well as maintain the online catalog of U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service references. Other tasks include digitizing maps, downloading content from CDs and DVDs, and generally working to decrease the volume of mixed media accumulated. The intern should be flexible and able to work independently. A person who enjoys nature, independence, and the rustic side of life will excel in this location.

QUALIFICATIONS: Required:· Enrolled or recently graduated from an ALA accredited MLIS program or related graduate program.· Ability to work independently and make well-researched decisions with limited supervision.· Superb organizational and planning skills.· Ability to recognize inefficiencies and recommend practical solutions.· Ability to balance theory and idealism with fiscal and logistical limitations in a non-traditional information setting.· Ability to use excel and Microsoft suite programs.· Experience with archival content management platforms.· Adhere to established guidelines and policies both professional and organizational.· Work experience in archival science or records management. Preferred:· Experience with scanning equipment and Adobe Acrobat.· Experience with records retention and disposition schedules.· An interest in environmental issues, biology, or conservation.· Experience cataloging or working with metadata.· Experience working with born-digital references in an archival or records management capacity.

SCHEDULE: A 6-month, full-time (40 hrs./week) schedule is preferred. The start date for this position would be between January 27th to February 1st, 2020. COMPENSATION:

The internship is unpaid. Depending on your school's program requirements, you may be able to receive credit for this internship. Alternatively, a performance award of up to $1,500 can be earned. TRAVEL

AND LODGING: The Service will provide roundtrip airfare to and from Kaua'i, including reimbursement for luggage, if necessary. A monthly food stipend of up to $300 is also provided (upon submittal of receipts). Housing is provided at a communal agency bunkhouse, if needed. The bunkhouse can accommodate up to thirteen people and applicants should be able to adapt to shared quarters and living space in a rural setting. Applicants must provide their own transportation to and from the bunkhouse and the worksite (~15 minute drive). Use of a government vehicle is allowed for official purposes, however, personal transportation allows the applicant to explore the island on your own during days off and holidays. SURROUNDINGS:

The office is located at Kīlauea Point NWR and is one of the most visited NWR's in the country, with approximately 500,000 visitors annually. A rustic bunkhouse is situated in Hanalei NWR and offers an unrivaled view of native Hawaiian wildlife and majestic landscape. There are nearby hiking trails, local shops, eateries, and a public library. Limited public transport is available. Weekends, holidays, and off hours can be spent exploring Hawaii. Opportunities abound to kayak, surf, fish, stand-up paddleboard, swim, snorkel, and enjoy the many beaches, parks, hiking trails, historical landmarks, and gardens.

BACKGROUND: The mission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is working with others to conserve, protect, and enhance fish, wildlife, plants, and their habitats for the continuing benefit of the American people. The National Wildlife Refuge System, managed by the Service, is the world's premier system of public lands and waters set aside to conserve America's fish, wildlife, and plants. The Records Management Facilitators will make a difference for some of the world's most remarkable and unique natural resources as our office continues to accomplish great things in the Pacific. APPLICATION PROCESS:

To apply for the Kaua'i position, send an attached resume, brief cover letter and two to three references to Jennifer Waipa at jennifer_waipa@fws.gov. Please have the subject of the email state "RMF Kauai Application"

Library Director / Chesterfield Public Library / Chesterfield, NH / Library Director, Chesterfield Public Library (Fulltime) Chesterfield, NH. This position provides an excellent opportunity for someone with the right academic focus, technological insight and futuristic vision who wants to make a mark for the citizens of our idyllic New England Town. "Community" is an integral part of our library. Our Library Director must have the vision to take the physical aspects of our library to the next level by creating flexible, inter-generational spaces that can dynamically accommodate multiple generations and different uses. Consideration of public needs within the confines of public spaces is also key, e.g., quiet and increased privacy for research and computer use in one area while maintaining chatty, community interaction areas in another. The employment of Mobile Shelving can be used as a tool to support these goals and public events. Our Library Director will report to the Chesterfield Library Trustees forming a partnership through management of the Operating Budget and Execution of Library Policies & Procedures. The Director will maintain oversight of the Library Staff in day to day operations and be asked to apply for Grants that would benefit our Library and Community. The Library Trustees emphasis is on a candidate with formal academic credentials from an institute offering an American Library Association Accredited Master's Program in Library and Information Studies in addition to practical experience in a Library Setting. Please Submit a current resume under cover with (3) references to: Trustees@chesterfieldlibrary.org Or mail to Chesterfield Public Library, 524 Rte 63, Chesterfield, NH 03443 Att. Library trustees.
