Library Director / Arcade Free Library / Arcade, NY / Apply by 11/1 / A PUBLIC LIBRARY PROVIDING REFERENCE, EDUCATIONAL AND RECREATIONAL RESOURCES FOR THE RESIDENTS OF THE

GREATER ARCADE AREA, SINCE 1905 The Board of Trustees of the Arcade Free Library seeks a community-minded, organized, and enthusiastic individual to oversee the continued growth of our library. The ideal candidate will be someone who is strongly motivated and can achieve the library's goals and objectives working closely with employees, patrons, and the library board.;

Working Environment; The Arcade Free Library serves the community of Arcade, NY, and the residents of the Pioneer School District which encompasses a number of towns in southwest Wyoming County, southeast Erie County, and northeast Cattaraugus County. It is located in the bucolic quiet Village of Arcade, NY. The location is a short drive to the cities of Buffalo and Rochester. The community has numerous community organizations that provide opportunities for community involvement as well as social events.;

Working Environment; The Arcade Free Library is an association library that provides a vital community resource serving the residents of the Pioneer Central School District. Although the Town of Arcade only has a population of approximately 4,200, the Pioneer School District has approximately 6,300 households with 15,800 residents. The residents of the Pioneer Central School District provide stable financial support for library operations. The Arcade Free Library is a member of the Pioneer Library System.;

The staff is friendly, skillful, and supportive. The enthusiastic efforts of the Friends of the Arcade Free Library actively contribute to the library's vibrancy, and a supportive Board of Trustees works cooperatively to deliver programs and services that reflect the needs and values of the community.;

The beautiful 5,400 square foot library was purchased in 1949 and contains a reading room, meeting space, office, and designated children's area. The library collection includes over 26,000 items with an annual circulation of 45,000.;

Essential Duties; Planning, organizing, and directing the operations and activities of the library.;

Managing library staff ensuring a high level of service to the community; Presenting director's reports and relevant information at monthly board meetings.;

Writing and administering grant applications and grant paperwork.;

Maintaining and managing the library building and grounds on a day-to-day basis with the assistance of the Facilities Committee.;

Actively participating in the Pioneer Library System community and attending development training sessions and meetings.;

Performing other duties as necessary or assigned.;

Minimum Qualifications; Bachelor's Degree with related experience is preferred; Associate's Degree with related experience is the minimum requirement.;

Salary and Benefits; Position: Full-Time 37.5 hours per week; Salary: $35,000 - $42,000 dependent on education and experience.;

Benefits: Vacation and sick days; Health Insurance; Specific terms of employment to be negotiated; Statement of Non-Discrimination; The library grants equal employment opportunities to all qualified persons without regard to an individual's age, sex, color, religion, marital status, national origin, political affiliation, handicapped status, or sexual orientation. The library complies with all federal and state regulations dealing with employment practices.;

Instructions to Applicants; Interested individuals meeting the qualifications should mail or email a cover letter with salary requirements, resume, and a list of three references to the President of the Board of Directors David Miller. The position will remain open until filled, preference will be given to applications received by November 1, 2020.;
