Children's Services Reference Librarian / Fairfield Public Library / Fairfield, CT / Apply by 1/22 / Fairfield Public Library. Dream, Discover, Innovate, Create @ Fairfield Public Library. Are you a dreamer, an idea person, or a discoverer of fun and unique experiences? Fairfield Public Library is looking for you. We'd like you to provide excellent service to our youngest library lovers as well as their caretakers and related community partners. We'd like you to enhance and maintain specific collections both physical and digital along with contributing to blogs, social media, and reading lists. We'd like you to provide outstanding children's programming that will surprise and delight the attendees and we'd like you to participate in community outreach to actively promote the library and children's services. As part of the children's team you will have the opportunity, at times, to develop and implement programs at Fairfield Woods Branch, a neighborhood library that is always filled with creative ideas. As part of the children's team your days will be filled with inspiration, collaboration and fun. This position requires an MLS from an ALA accredited university along with 1-2 years' experience working as a professional librarian, particularly in Children's Services including familiarity with technology and readers' advisory. This is a 35 hour a week position which includes one evening a week and one Saturday a month. Salary: $54,744. Please submit a cover letter and resume to Karen Ronald, Town Librarian, kronald@fplct.org by January 22, 2016.

Head of Youth Services / Fairfield Public Library / Fairfield, CT / Apply by 1/22 / Fairfield Public Library. Fairfield Public Library, Fairfield Connecticut, is seeking a Head of Youth Services who brings a vision for youth services, demonstrates leadership, creativity and innovation. The successful candidate will continue to implement and expand upon the outstanding programs and classes already developed for children, tweens and adults and continue to anticipate community needs. The successful candidate will apply experience and enthusiasm for children's services and seize the opportunity to realize their ideas, dreams and visions for young patrons and their caretakers. You will be knowledgeable about current youth and family issues and understand technology trends. You will monitor the youth services budget. You will attend community meetings and collaborate with public schools, other educational institutions and city agencies. This position is a member of the Library's leadership team and you will take an active role in the implementation of our Strategic Plan while creating a positive atmosphere of teamwork. As a creative and optimistic problem solver you will enhance the children's space to be uplifting and inspirational for the children who visit. ALA accredited MLS required. Must have a minimum 4 years working full-time as a professional children's librarian with a preferred minimum of 3 years supervising library staff including mentoring and providing ongoing training as needed. Candidate must have demonstrated knowledge of children's collections including emerging trends. You must have demonstrated record of effectively managing collection and staffing budgets. Grant writing experience is a plus. Fairfield, Connecticut is a beautiful town of 60,000 easily accessible by train to NYC and Boston. Beginning salary: Negotiable. Benefit package included. Please submit a cover letter and resume to Karen Ronald, Town Librarian, kronald@fplct.org by January 22, 2016.

Legislative Aide / Connecticut State Library Bill Room / Hartford, CT / Connecticut State Library Bill Room As an employee of the principal Law Library in the State of CT, the individual in this position will learn the legislative process by working with highly skilled government professionals.
