Staffing Strategy Evaluation Support Internship / Hennepin County Library / Minnetonka, MN / Apply by 1/31 / Title: Staffing Strategy Evaluation Support Internship, Opening Date: December 9, 2016, Closing Date: January 31, 2017. Job Type: Paid Internship ($19.53/hr). Location: Main work location is at the Hennepin County Library - Ridgedale Library, 12601 Ridgedale Drive., Minnetonka, with some work at other library locations within Hennepin County. The Position Hennepin County Library's (HCL) Library Services Division is seeking an enthusiastic, engaged individual to fill a paid internship supporting the division's staffing strategy project evaluation. Earlier this year, the Library Services Division implemented a staffing strategy which featured new job descriptions and new ways for staff to work together to serve patrons. This service and staffing model includes a compelling vision for an exceptional patron service experience in person, online and in the community; clarifies roles and expectations; and further positions HCL as a 21st-century library system. This internship will assist library staff in a comprehensive evaluation of the staffing strategy project. This paid internship is for 8 - 10 hours per week for the duration of one semester, January-May 2017. Primary Duties and Responsibilities include: Under the supervision of the Library Services division manager, perform a wide variety of administrative tasks related to the evaluation of the staffing strategy project. Assist in determining information and research requirements. Research, analyze and interpret data based on stated goals and objectives. Modify and maintain data collection forms and procedures. Write statistical and project reports. Draft and develop plans for soliciting staff feedback. Provide assistance to support teams of staff with on-going research or analysis related to the project. Best Qualified Candidates will: Be enrolled in a Master's Degree in Library/Information Science from an ALA accredited program or a recent graduate or enrolled in a Master's Degree in public administration program or a recent graduate. Strong computer skills with Microsoft Office Suite. Excellent written and verbal communication skills. Ability to take responsibility for meeting deadlines and making progress without direct supervision. Ability to handle and protect sensitive information professionally. Have not completed an internship with Hennepin County Library in the past. To Apply: Submit a resume, brief cover letter outlining your qualifications for this internship, and contact information for two references to: Barb McKenzie Hennepin County Library - Ridgedale, 12601 Ridgedale Drive, Minnetonka, MN 55305, bamckenzie@hclib.org (preferred), (612)543-8579.

Digital Library Developer / Lafayette College / Easton, PA / Lafayette College Library seeks a talented and passionate developer to lead the design, management, and development of our digital library services. Lafayette College has a long history of innovation within various digital library and Open Source communities. We are members of the Fedora Commons 4 community and a partner within Project Hydra. The person selected for this position will collaborate with other community members around the nation and beyond with the aim of extending and refining our repository stack to meet growing demands of Lafayette's library, faculty, administration, and our local community. DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES: The successful candidate will have primary responsibility for development and maintenance of digital library repository components in the Ruby on Rails or Node.js frameworks, Apache Solr, PostgreSQL or MySQL/MariaDB, and Redis. Other duties include providing support and documentation for these systems, migration to/from other platforms, developing in coordination with a user interface developer, and close collaboration with faculty researchers. Qualifications: Strong programming experience in multiple programming languages, Demonstrated understanding of digital library metadata standards (the RDF and Linked Open Data, the MODS, and PREMIS), Prior professional experience with repositories in an academic library. Preferred qualifications: Experience with Agile development practices, Familiarity with challenges of digital preservation, Desire to work in an academic library. This is a full-time, 12-month position. The Library strongly supports professional development and provides funding for staff to present their work at national conferences. Lafayette College offers a competitive salary and generous benefits package as compensation. An advanced degree in library and information science or a relevant field is required for this position, as suitably qualified candidates will be eligible for faculty status without rank or tenure. For consideration, please submit a resume and cover letter addressing job qualifications and the names of three professional references to James Griffin, Co-Director of Digital Scholarship Services, via email at castells@lafayette.edu

Research Associate/ Korn Ferry/ Philadelphia, PA/ Reporting Relationship: The position reports to the Sector or COE Practice Leader and/or Office Managing Director (OMD) along with a Regional Research Manager. Website: <http://www.kornferry.com> COMPANY BACKGROUND/CULTURE: Korn/Ferry consultants - based in more than 80 offices across North America, Europe, Asia/Pacific, Latin America, the Middle East and South Africa - work closely with clients and candidates to craft successful human capital strategies and solutions. The firm's seamless global network, time-proven search process and broad industry and regional expertise provide the competitive advantage necessary to recruit and develop world-class leadership teams. Korn Ferry maintains a highly entrepreneurial, fast-paced culture, with particular emphasis on client-service teamwork. KEY RESPONSIBILITIES: Searcher Entry: Consistently inputting and updating candidate records using Power of 10 metrics. Business Development/Search: Actively participates in designing the search and business development strategy with the Partner and Consultant; proactive involvement as a valued team contributor throughout the search process from pitch to candidate development. Candidate ID: Providing research in support of candidate identification and business development activities of the local office or specialty practice. Develops appropriate candidate "target" lists for Senior Associates using the phone, print materials and a wide range of online information resources. Internal/External Call Participation: Attends or listens in on kick-off meetings, suggests possible targets and attends client briefings/meetings when possible; attends or listens in on all applicable sector and practice meetings/calls. Focus on Client and Candidate Service: Develops a full understanding of the search and the research needs of internal clients; develops confidence and trust of both internal and external clients. Market Intelligence: Teaming up on "proprietary" market intelligence projects in a Research Associate's sector and/or COE "minor"; proactively identifies and tracks organizational, industry, and/or functional trends and reports findings. Technology Skills: PowerPoint, Visio, and Excel as well as such databases as Factiva and Lexis-Nexis are a plus. LEADERSHIP CHARACTERISTICS: Intelligence and Intellectual Curiosity. Must be genuinely interested in learning about people, business and industry characteristics/needs. Need the ability to quickly learn industry fundamentals and understand criteria for success. Importantly, must have a high "EQ" (Emotional [Maturity] Quotient). Need sufficient conceptual skills to understand broad industry concepts and analytical skills to "drill down" to determine depth of experience. High Energy Level. Must work on multiple assignments simultaneously, adhering to best practice guidelines. Must be willing to work hours required to complete the assignment. "Street Smarts". The ability to quickly discern the criteria most important for candidate success in a particular search, listen to and process candidate information in such a way as to determine likely fit with the opportunity and quickly "close" the conversation to specific next steps or additional source or candidate identification. Contribution to Resources. Adds to and updates Searcher. Conducts a thorough evaluation of the outcome of research provided on a search and ensures that results are recorded in

Searcher. Actively contributes to the practice knowledge system as well as to practice and research meetings. Entrepreneurial Spirit. Works with minimal direction; is a self-starter. Provides meaningful feedback and when appropriate offers value-added suggestions for approaching the search in a different way. Provides research support in business development efforts. Efficiency and Need for Closure. Works with multiple managers and prioritizes task effectively. The ability to understand that Korn Ferry is a business and needs to complete searches quickly and at the highest quality standards, while making a profit consistent with the value delivered. Persistence and Thoroughness. Ability to work in a fast-paced and unstructured work environment, able to assertively navigate organizational structures, but with sensitivity and finesse. Research Associates must reliably complete necessary paperwork and follow procedures effectively, especially with regard to protecting key assets, such as proprietary databases. Outstanding Communication Skills. Although outstanding telephone skills are especially essential, Research Associates need excellent overall communications skill, as well. They must demonstrate excellent verbal skills on the telephone, written skills in drafting specifications and references as well as other required documents, and presentation skills in client situations. Discretion. Must project an understanding and appreciation for the confidentiality of client and candidate information and protect it as appropriate. Poise and Presence. Although in-person client contact is not the primary focus of this position, Research Associates interface with very senior people. They must project an image that is a credit to Korn Ferry. Positive Cultural Influence. Although the Korn Ferry culture is independent and entrepreneurial, a team orientation is becoming increasingly important. At a minimum, the Research Associate must interface well with other office associates, but ideally will become a valued and important part of building a positive culture, raising other associates' job satisfaction levels and increasing office productivity and retention rates. Career Ambition. A successful Research Associate career path typically includes opportunities for promotion to Associate and/or Senior Associate, which has extensive client contact and business development expectations. Career paths for successful candidates may also include a more senior Research position (e.g. "Knowledge Manager or Market Intelligence Manager") for a sector or COE cluster. EDUCATION: An undergraduate degree from a well-regarded institution is required. Email cover letter and resume to, Laurel McGarvie, Research Associate, laurel.mcgarvie@kornferry.com
