Visiting Summer Storyteller / Nioga Library System / Lockport, NY / Grigg-Lewis Workshop Visiting Summer Storyteller Nioga Library System Duties, Responsibilities and Scope of Position Summer interns will participate in a training session with the supervising librarian on the New York State Summer Reading Program theme and literature-based programming for children in grades Pre-K-3 . Elements of the Common Core will be introduced in these programs. Part of the training will consist of scheduled visits to select member libraries to observe programs created and conducted by the supervising librarian. With guidance and supervision, Interns will have the opportunity to develop their own ideas for library programs based on appropriate themes and literature, incorporating other media, e.g.crafts, games, music, etc. Interns will be encouraged to develop their own materials to promote their programs, e.g. bookmarks, fliers, etc. Programs will be “packaged” with guidelines and program materials for future loan to member libraries. Programs will be science based and include Common Core activities to compliment the 2016 New York State Summer Reading Theme. Duration The program runs from approximately Monday, May 15 to Friday, August 31, 2017 at an average 35 hours per week per intern (a total of 350 hours). Total payment for 350 hours will be $3,395.00). Some evening and Saturday hours may be required. Location Interns will be headquartered at the Nioga Library System. Programming activities will take place at member libraries throughout Nioga’s service area. Supervisor and Location Grigg-Lewis Summer Reading Program Consultant will manage and supervise the program during the summer. The System contact prior to the start of the program is: Lisa Erickson 6575 Wheeler Road Lockport, NY 14094 (716) 434-6167, ext. 33 leric@nioga.org Minimum Qualifications A student registered to enter or continue a four-year college program An interest in pursuing a degree in early childhood/elementary education or library science Resident of Eastern Niagara County A valid NYS Driver’s License Required Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Oral communication skills with individuals and groups of varying ages, educational backgrounds and experiential levels. Written communication skills. An interest in working with children. An ability to plan and coordinate tasks. An ability to work independently in the completion of goals. An ability to meet people easily, relate to children and express oneself clearly and concisely. Tact, courtesy and good judgment. Dress Code Business Casual Physical Requirements Ability to carry programs to program locations. Willing to use own vehicle if system-owned vehicles are unavailable. (Nioga will provide mileage reimbursement). Enhancement of System Services Eleven member libraries in the Nioga Library System service area have no Children’s Librarian on staff. Children are being served at these libraries where one staff person is in charge of all facets of library operations. A prime time for libraries to conduct literature-based programs for children is during the summer in conjunction with the New York State Summer Reading Program. The Visiting Summer Storyteller Program will enable all member libraries to enrich their summer selection of services and programs to children and their families.
