Digital Content Specialist, Allied Vaughn/ Livonia, MI/ Allied Vaughn has served as a media solutions provider since 1959 operating as both an active corporate archive while offering scalable library and archival services on various projects for private organizations and public institutions. Most notably, since 2001 Allied Vaughn has served as the global repository of historical, photographic, film, and digital media content spanning from the 19th century through the present for GM. Housing one of the largest corporate media collections in the world, our mission is to systematically catalog, digitally preserve and improve access to this vast collection of material for both GM and related stakeholders. The key to our success in content management lies in our technical expertise coupled with our professional staff of project managers, content creators, archivists, librarians, and digital media/content specialists. Our goal is to not only expose new professionals to rich and dynamic corporate history but groom new professionals in both the art and act of digital preservation and content management best practices. Most recently, we have digital content specialists teams supporting both archival and digital initiatives for clients such as GM, Ford, Chrysler, Carhartt, ACDelco, Kraft-Heinz, Monster, BFA, and Baxter. More specifically, we are working in the digital asset management space across industry sectors providing cataloging and metadata expertise for clients in entertainment, fashion, food, pharma, automotive, consumer and manufactured goods sectors. We support teams in the metro-Detroit area, New York City, LA, and Chicago and are looking to expand our teams to support our growing partnerships. Candidates are encouraged to apply currently in history and/or MLIS programs with archival and/or library experience or related fields like Marketing/Communication and an interest or background in digital asset management is preferred. · Familiar with archival and digital best practices in processing, curation, arrangement, description, and preservation · Ability to distinguish between various media/file formats · Exhibit technical skills · Cataloguing and/or metadata experience · Execute digitization processes · Ease in the use of Digital Management System software · Research skills necessary for identification and content retrieval · Experience with client/customer service · Ability to work independently and collaborate on a team across organizational entities · Ability to contribute creative solutions · Clear communicator with strong interpersonal skills · Flexible schedule, including occasional weekend work · Part-time, 24-28 hours a week · Office located in Livonia, MI with some remote work flexibility · Ability to lift 30 lb boxes · Paid position starting immediately If you are interested please apply by emailing a copy of your resume, cover letter, and a list of references to: Lisa M.
