Collection Development & Analysis Librarian / Syracuse University / Syracuse, NY
Research and Instruction Librarian / Cornell Law Library / Ithaca, NY / Apply by 10/28

Associate University Librarian / Colgate University / Hamilton, NY / Apply by 10/21 / The Colgate University Libraries seek a collaborative, experienced, forward-thinking leader as Associate University Librarian. Reporting to the University Librarian and serving on the senior management team, the Associate University Librarian assists the University Librarian with overall administration of the libraries particularly insuring that plans for the libraries' strategic initiatives are communicated to all library stakeholders and are well planned, implemented, and assessed. Additionally, this position provides leadership, vision, and management for two important areas: (1) develop and sustain the Colgate Libraries' staff and faculty library professional development program and (2) lead efforts to design systematic and sustainable approaches to scholarly communications outreach, manage the Digital Commons Repository, and design new services that support the broadest possible dissemination of scholarly output. Supports the University Librarian in vetting and advancing new ideas, initiatives, and strategic plans and fostering a culture of collaboration and communication. Required Qualifications: Master's Degree from an ALA-accredited library school or program. Five years of progressively responsible experience in library management and public services. Two years of direct supervision of support staff and/or librarians. Strong organizational skills and written and oral communication skills. Ability to work independently and as part of a team in a dynamic environment. Strong service orientation with the ability to interact positively with students, faculty, and the public. Additional information about Colgate University and the Colgate Libraries can be found at <http://cul.colgate.edu/joinus.html> Application instructions can be found at <https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/8033>. Candidates will need to upload a letter of application, curriculum vita, and provide email addresses for three references, including current supervisor. Colgate strives to be a community supportive of diverse perspectives and identities. Candidates should describe how they have or would propose to work in a diverse environment. Official transcripts will be required of candidates selected for an on-campus interview. Review of application materials will begin on October 21, 2016 and continue until the position is filled. Colgate is a highly selective private liberal arts university located in Hamilton, NY, and is an EO/AA employer. Developing and sustaining a diverse faculty, staff, and student body further the University's educational mission. Women and candidates from historically underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply. Applicants with dual career considerations can find postings of other employment opportunities at <http://www.upstatenyherc.org>

Head of Metadata & Cataloging Services / Colgate University / Hamilton, NY / Apply by 10/17 / The Colgate University Libraries seek a collaborative, experienced, forward-thinking leader as the Head of Metadata & Cataloging Services. Reporting to the University Librarian, the ideal candidate will provide experienced leadership in planning, creation, and management of metadata and cataloging services, authority control processes, and bibliographic maintenance activities for items and collections purchased/acquired, subscribed, or created by the Colgate University Libraries. The individual in this position will manage staff engaged in cataloging print, physical, and electronic media while integrating electronic resource workflows and introducing innovative practices leveraging advanced metadata, indexing and analytical features of the libraries' ILS and digital platforms for improved discoverability of the Libraries' resources including digital resources relating to the university's heritage. Required Qualifications: Master's Degree from an ALA-accredited institution or program. Five years of progressively responsible experience in library metadata/cataloging. Experience with national bibliographic utilities (OCLC), integrated library systems, vendor cataloging services, authority control services, and automated routines for bibliographic maintenance. Experience in providing original cataloging for multiple formats. Professional understanding and working knowledge of cataloging procedures and principles including BIBFRAME, RDA, MARC21, AACR2, LCSH and LC classification and authority formats. Professional understanding and working knowledge of MARC and non-MARC metadata schemas, standards, and their applications, such as Dublin Core, METS and MODS, and familiarity with the evolution of technical services products and services. Two years experience and demonstrated skill in direct supervision of support staff or librarians, including hiring, orienting, training and development, organizing workloads, delegating responsibility, providing guidance and direction, monitoring, coaching. Ability to be proactive, flexible, and collaborative as a supervisor in order to accomplish departmental, library, and institutional goals. Strong organizational skills and written and oral communication skills. Ability to work independently and as part of a team in a dynamic environment.
