Digitization Internship / South Central Regional Library Council / Ithaca, NY / South Central Regional Library Council (SCRLC) is pleased to offer a 150-hour internship opportunity for MLIS students interested in gaining experience in the area of digitization. One internship spot is available for the Spring 2017 term. The intern will create and edit digital collections under the supervision of SCRLC's Digital Services librarian, and work on supporting digitization project documentation and evaluation. Training will be provided, as well as a modest stipend. Activities include: Assisting in the selection of materials to digitize. Training and/or overseeing the scanning of documents. Assigning metadata to digital objects. Converting, uploading, and editing files in CONTENTdm. Creating tools and programming for outreach and marketing initiatives for digital projects, including the New York Heritage Digital Collections' Women's Suffrage Centennial Celebration and Erie Canal Centennial projects. Developing assessment plans for digitization projects. Working with SCRLC website and LibGuides to provide improved online resources and access to digital collections. The intern will ideally have had some coursework or experience with digitization and be able to work independently and as a team; good attention to detail is also essential. They will also need the ability to travel to member libraries as needed, usually with the digital services librarian. A modest stipend will be available (the exact amount is contingent upon the receipt of program funds). If you are interested in pursuing this internship opportunity at SCRLC or would like more information, please send your resume to Mary-Carol Lindbloom, Executive Director, mclindbloom@scrlc.org.
