Digital Content Specialist / Allied Vaughn / Livonia, MI / Digital Content Specialist, Livonia, MI, Allied Vaughn has served as a media solutions provider since 1959 operating as both an active corporate archive while offering scalable library and archival services on various projects for private organizations and public institutions. Most notably, since 2001 Allied Vaughn has served as the global repository of historical, photographic, film, and digital media content spanning from the 19th century through the present for GM. Housing one of the largest corporate media collections in the world, our mission is to systematically catalog, digitally preserve and improve access to this vast collection of material for both GM and related stakeholders. The key to our success in content management lies in our technical expertise coupled with our professional staff of project managers, content creators, archivists, librarians, and digital media/content specialists. Our goal is to not only expose new professionals to rich and dynamic corporate history but groom new professionals in both the art and act of digital preservation and content management best practices. Most recently, we have digital content specialist teams supporting both archival and digital initiatives for clients such as GM, Ford, Chrysler, Carhartt, ACDelco, Kraft-Heinz, Monster Energy, BFA, YUM!, and Baxter. More specifically, we are working in the digital asset management space across industry sectors providing cataloging and metadata expertise for clients in entertainment, fashion, food, pharmaceutical, automotive, consumer and manufactured goods sectors. We support teams in the metro-Detroit area, New York City, LA, and Chicago and are looking to expand our teams to support our growing partnerships. Candidates are encouraged to apply who are currently in history and/or MLIS programs with archival and/or library experience or related fields like Marketing/Communications and an interest or background in digital asset management. This is a part-time (24-28 hours per week), paid position starts immediately in our Livonia, MI location. Desired Skills and Experience: Familiar with archival and digital best practices in processing, curation, arrangement, description, and preservation, Ability to distinguish between various media/file formats, Exhibit technical skills, Cataloguing and/or metadata experience, Execute digitization processes, Ease in the use of Content Management System software, Research skills necessary for identification and content retrieval, Experience with client/customer service, Ability to work independently and collaborate on a team across organizational entities, Ability to contribute creative solutions, Clear communicator with strong interpersonal skills, Flexible schedule, including occasional weekend work, Ability to lift 30 lb boxes. If you are interested please apply by emailing a copy of your resume, cover letter, and a list of references to: Lisa M. Library Director IV / Tompkins County Public Library / Ithaca, NY / Apply by 4/21 / Library Director IV, Tompkins County Public Library, The Tompkins County Public Library Board of Directors seeks an enthusiastic, visionary, community-minded leader as its next Library Director. The successful candidate will demonstrate strong leadership skills, exhibit a clear vision and commitment to librarianship and community engagement, articulate and advocate the Library's strategic directions, provide sound fiscal management, promote proactive leadership in technology integration and promote collaborative relationships within the Library and throughout the community. The Library, a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization, has an annual budget of $4,004,856 supported by county funding with additional support from the Town of Ithaca, the Tompkins County Public Library Foundation and the Friends of the Tompkins Public Library. Tompkins County Public Library, chartered to serve the county of 101,950, serves as the Central Library of the Finger Lakes Library System's 33 libraries in 5 counties. The Library was originally founded by Ezra Cornell in 1864 as the Cornell Library Association and served as the first site of classes, faculty meetings and graduation of Cornell University. The current beautiful 66,747-square-foot Library facility is at present undergoing renovations to add a new 21st Century Digital Lab, Makerspace and a new Teen Center as a result of a successful $3.57 million fundraising campaign. In 2016, the dedicated and award-winning staff (42.41 FTE) provided services to close to 400,000 visitors, circulated 816,517 items, hosted more than 33,200 attendees for programs and offered more than one million online interactions through the library website, the 'TCPL to Go' library app, catalog, digital collections, internet and wireless access. Ithaca is located in Tompkins County and the beautiful Finger Lakes region of central New York State, a vital and engaged community that is home to Cornell University, Ithaca College and Tompkins Cortland Community College. Outdoor enthusiasts and nature lovers will find numerous opportunities to hike, bike, ski, enjoy beautiful Cayuga Lake and seek new adventures. The Library is located in the center of a busy and growing downtown that includes a wide variety of restaurants and shops. Tompkins County offers ample opportunities for outdoor activities, a thriving cultural scene and award-winning school systems. To learn more, visit Ithaca and Tompkins County, New York. Responsibilities The Library Director has overall responsibility for administration of staff, resources and resource development, long range planning, service delivery, comprehensive programs, government relations, public and community relations, fiscal affairs, personnel and labor relations. Responsible for leading the Library to respond both positively and rapidly to changing community needs and demographics. Responsible for organizational development, contract negotiations and staff development. Responsible for fundraising, facilitating and maintaining close working relationships with the Tompkins County Legislature, Tompkins County Public Library Foundation, The Friends of the Tompkins County Public Library, and the City and Town of Ithaca. Requirements Graduation from an ALA Accredited school or program with a graduate degree in library or information studies and possession of, or eligibility for, a New York State Public Librarian's Professional Certificate and eight years of satisfactory professional library experience in a library of recognized standing, two years of which must have been in an administrative capacity. Other preferred qualifications include: experience reporting to a governing board, successful fundraising skills, experience working with budgets, construction and/or renovation experience, and working effectively with government officials and other public constituencies. This position is a New York State Civil Service position. See Tompkins County Public Library Director Position Description to review the full position description. Salary is commensurate with education and experience. Generous benefits package. Interested applicants should complete and submit the Tompkins County electronic application and attach a cover letter and resume by April 21, 2017. This vacancy posting is running in conjunction with the examination announcement. Candidates who meet the minimum qualifications of the position will be invited to take the online training and experience examination through the NYS website starting June 1, 2017. If you have any questions about the application or the examination process or need any assistance throughout the process please contact the Tompkins County Department of Human Resources \(607\) 274-5526. TCPL is an equal opportunity employer.

Library Director/ Highland Falls Library / Highland Falls, NY / The Board of Trustees of the Highland Falls Library is seeking candidates for the position of Library Director, beginning at the end of 2017. The Highland Falls Library is a private association library, serving the public in the Village of Highland Falls and the hamlet of Ft. Montgomery. The major support for the yearly budget of $262,000 is the Town of Highlands. The library also benefits from an active Friends group, which often takes the lead in fund-raising for special projects. Requirements include a four-year bachelor's degree in any subject, excellent leadership and communication skills, some knowledge of grant writing, and experience working in a library. Duties will include overall aspects of the daily operation of the library, supervision of a small staff, work with adults and children (story-time), budgeting and management of financial matters, reference work, assistance with computer needs of the community, reading of reviews and ordering books and materials, among others. The library is a member of the Ramapo-Catskill Library System (RCLS), which provides automation and other related services. The Director is expected to participate with other directors as an advisor to RCLS. The new and spacious library is located on the Main Street of the village, and is central to the community and its needs. The work week is approximately 36 hours, with some Saturdays (four hours) and evenings (to 7pm) required. Starting salary is $47,000 to $50,000, depending on experience, with holidays and generous sick/vacation time included. A possible benefits package is open to discussion. The Board of Trustees is primarily interested in finding the right candidate with enthusiasm and energy to work with an active community and Friends group. A letter of interest and resume may be sent to the library, 298 Main Street, Highland Falls, NY, 10928, attention Vivian Thomson or email to Suzanne Brahm - sbrahm@rcls.org "Library Director" in the subject line.
