Archivist/Project Cataloger (PT) / PEN American Center / New York, NY / PEN American Center, the largest branch of the world's leading international literary and human rights organization, has received funding to preserve, digitize, and make available online to the public its audio and video collection, which features icons and iconoclasts whose ideas and actions transformed the literary, political, and cultural landscapes of our time, such as Arthur Miller, Susan Sontag, Kurt Vonnegut Jr., Toni Morrison, Michael Cunningham, Grace Paley, Norman Mailer, Salman Rushdie, and many others. The collection captures the raw ideas that helped thrust American intellectualism and cultural influence onto the international stage over five decades of political, social, and cultural turmoil and national transformation. PEN America seeks a freelance archivist and cataloger to preserve, digitize, and make available online over 50 years of audio and video materials from PEN's archives. The cataloger will work with PEN America's content director and the Princeton University Rare Books Library to review digitized materials, develop a system to assign item-level library standard metadata and descriptions for use on PEN's archival website and in the Princeton University finding aid and reference systems. This is a part-time (15-25 hours a week) and will span 12-18 months. Primary Responsibilities: Develop and implement standard set of vocabulary and data fields capable of meeting the needs of general-audience multimedia platforms (tags) and library standards used for Princeton University's reference systems; Work with the existing finding aid and archival records to catalog and ascribe item-level metadata and descriptions to audio video materials being digitized; Assist in developing an asset management system to track and document audio and video materials held at Princeton University, the PEN America office, and off-site storage. Requirements: Relevant advanced degrees or experience in library science, archival studies, digital humanities and/or preservation; Strong familiarity with a broad range of audio and video materials; Background in both library and archival cataloging; Knowledge of PBCore V2.0 and PBCore extensions; Extensive knowledge of data value standards such as Thesauri produced by the Getty Institute and the Library of Congress; Knowledge of contemporary American and international literature; Ability to work independently; Excellent organizational and communication skills; Day trips to Princeton, NJ, required. Salary and Benefits: Commensurate with experience. Application Instructions: Please email your resume and cover letter, with "Archives Cataloger" in the subject line to: conrad@pen.org. Phone calls will not be returned.

Collection Services Librarian / Linscheid Library, East Central University / Ada, OK / Apply by 4/1 / Collections Services Librarian, 12-Month Non-tenure Track Librarian/Instructor. East Central University, Ada, Oklahoma, Do you want to: Engage in a wide range of valuable professional experiences? Work in a collaborative atmosphere where everyone's voice matters? Use your creativity and enthusiasm to promote electronic resources? If so, the Collection Services Librarian opening at East Central University's Linscheid Library may be a great fit for you. The Position: Oversee electronic resources, periodicals, & interlibrary loan with a focus on facilitating access. Act as the administrator for electronic resource vendor accounts. Act as the administrator for OCLC's WorldShare Interlibrary Loan. Manage 250+ print subscriptions. Instruct students in library use and research skills in the classroom and at the Reference Desk. Serve as liaison to several academic departments, collaborating with faculty on research, collection development, information literacy curriculum development, and special projects. Remain up-to-date on emerging trends and best practices. Lead and serve on library and university committees. Supervise one full-time staff member. The Library: Linscheid Library is comprised of five librarians, seven staff members, and a director that work collaboratively to foster student success at ECU and within the community of Ada. The Place: East Central University is a student-centered regional public university with an enrollment of 4,727 offering thirty-five undergraduate baccalaureate degree programs in arts and letters, business, education, mathematics and sciences, nursing and the social sciences; and nine master's degrees in accounting, education, human resources, and psychology. ECU's students come from 24 countries and 25 states. ECU is located in Ada, a city of 16,000, in the east central region of Oklahoma. Ada is the home of the Chickasaw Nation's business headquarters, the Robert S. Kerr EPA Water Research Laboratory, and LegalShield. It offers a hometown feel, along with quality schools, restaurants, and other businesses. Your Qualifications: Both experienced librarians and recent graduates from ALA-accredited MLS programs are encouraged to apply. Electronic resources experience preferred. Excellent communication skills, strong public service orientation, computer literacy, and data analysis skills required. To Apply: Send cover letter, resume, official undergraduate and graduate transcripts, names/addresses/ phone numbers/emails of three professional references, and *Disclosure Statement to Stephanie Moss, Employment Services, East Central University, 1100 E. 14th Street, PMB D-2, Ada, OK 74820 or es@ecok.edu. Application review will begin April 1, 2016 and will continue until the position is filled. AA/EOE.
