Summer Archival internship - Newseum (LAUREL, MD) / Apply by 4/12 / Newseum Archival Internship Summer 2017 – Laurel, MD / Are you looking for an exciting internship that will provide you with the skills necessary to help you obtain full-time archival employment? If so, the Newseum's Archival Internship at our Laurel, MD location is for you! The Newseum, a revolutionary 250,000-square-foot museum that promotes, explains and defends free expression and the five freedoms of the First Amendment, offers visitors an experience that blends five centuries of history with technology and hands-on exhibits. At the Newseum, we pride ourselves on creating up-to-the minute exhibits and actively collecting modern and historic print news materials. As a Newseum intern you will work with our 35,000 piece historic print news collection at our support center in Laurel, Maryland. Internship hours are flexible and can be arranged to fit individuals' schedules. You will be a member of the small, dynamic Collections team and will be able to make an enormous contribution to the work we do. This is a wonderful opportunity to gain behind-the-scenes archival experience with one of Washington, D.C.'s most popular museums! Intern responsibilities will include assisting the Print News Archivist with the following tasks: * Preparing newspapers or magazines for an upcoming exhibition will comprise a significant portion of this internship. Must be comfortable handling print news materials and learning to encapsulate them using microchamber board and Melinex. * Processing and potential original cataloging of historic newspapers and magazines, depending upon the launch date of our new database. Researching, identifying and documenting important news events appearing in print news items. * Retrieving and re-shelving archival materials, including the frequent handling and carrying of 20-40 lb. newspaper boxes. Experience/Skills: * Candidates should be currently enrolled in or should have recently finished a museum-related, library science-related, or archival-related graduate or undergraduate program, with an interest in collections/archival work. * Excellent computer skills and accuracy in spelling and database entry. * Solid historical research skills and broad knowledge of, and interest in, U.S. and world history. * The ability to frequently lift and carry 20-40 lb. boxes and lift, reach, and bend with ease. * Must have dependable transportation to our Laurel, MD facility. Timing/Duration/Pay Internships last for a minimum of 12 weeks and may be part- or full-time. This unpaid internship position is for college credit or experience only. Application Deadline Wednesday, April 12, 2017 Application Process - Please send your cover letter, resume, and two references to: Newseum, Human Resources Department, 555 Pennsylvania Ave., NW Washington, DC 20001 E-mail: jobs@newseum.org

Contract Archivist / Campbell Soup Co. / Camden NJ/ Apply by 3/24 / The Campbell Soup Company (CSC) is offering a one-year contract for an archivist, with opportunity for renewal. The CSC Archives collects materials representing 148 years of growth, products, operations, manufacturing processes, licensing, marketing, and acquisitions of the Campbell Soup Company and its subsidiaries around the world. This is a fixed price award of $50,000 for archival services over 12 months to process material from the permanent collection. The basis of award shall be determined by best value, as demonstrated by training, relevant experience, and professional references. Scope of Work: The contractor will be based at Campbell's WHQ campus in Camden, NJ and will process and catalog material from the permanent collection. Specific Tasks: The contractor will process material according to archival standards and best practices. Processing will include arrangement, creating folder-level catalog records in TMS database, rehousing materials, and performing minor preservation tasks as needed. The Contractor may also assist CSC staff with other duties as assigned. Qualifications and Criteria for Selection: Applicants should have a graduate degree from an accredited History, Library, Archives or Museum Studies program. Additionally, the applicant must have:

- Prior experience processing archival collections
- Demonstrated understanding of the archival principles of provenance and original order.
- Experience using collections management software. Preference will be given to applicants with prior experience using TMS and prior experience processing/working with corporate collections.

To Apply: Application should include the following information:

- Resume and cover letter describing your interest and qualifications
- Names and contact information for three references

- Applicants are encouraged to submit supplementary materials that provide evidence of accomplishments, such as finding aids. Submit application materials via email to Sarah Rice at ricesa@campbellsoup.com
