Help Desk Analyst / Hofstra Law School / Hempstead, NY / Employer Statement: The Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University School invites applications for the position of Help Desk Analyst in its Information Technology Services department. Job Description: Reporting to the Director of Information Technology Services, the Help Desk Analyst is responsible for overseeing the day to day operations of the help desk, providing phone, email, walk-in and field technical support to end users for issues associated with desktop computer hardware, software, mobile devices, and printers. The Help Desk Analyst interacts within a fast-paced help desk environment, servicing the entire Law School Community. The successful candidate will be able to provide hardware/software/audiovisual support to students, faculty, and staff; update these users on requests; and help ensure the smooth operations of the Law School Help Desk Office. The Help Desk Analyst is responsible for supervising, training and delegating tasks to part-time student assistants, escalating certain complex technical problems through a defined escalation process, implementing and supporting various customer service applications, including the automated classroom podcast system, and overseeing the law school's help desk request tracking system. The Help Desk Analyst also assists with hardware/software upgrades and troubleshooting and the day to day classroom technology setups. The Help Desk Analyst will create documentation for help desk policies and procedures, training, and application support. Other duties as assigned. Job & Educational Requirements: Required Skills: Experience in successfully tracking and managing a large volume of simultaneous tasks, projects, or requests; strong organizational and communication skills; attention to detail; motivation, efficiency and self-direction with extensive troubleshooting abilities. The ideal candidate will have at least two years' experience in an IT help desk environment. Some nights are required. The position requires a Bachelor's degree. Preferred Skills: Experience in an academic setting supporting faculty, staff, student and administrative users; prior experience in a high-volume help desk environment. Experience with Ellucian Banner, HTML, CSS, MS Access, Echo 360, Windows shell scripting, and ServiceNow. Experience with project management, administering instructional technology, and web programming. Contact Information & Application Instructions: For consideration, please send a resume, cover letter and salary history, via email to: Scott Filipkowski, Director of Information Technology Services, Email: LawSchoolJobs@hofstra.edu . Please include "Help Desk Analyst" in the subject line.
