Paid Internship /Federal Reserve/ Washington D.C./ Apply by 5/15/ The Research Library at the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System is offering a paid summer internship for graduate level library or information science students. The Research Library offers a full array of desktop and customized library services to staff members at the Board and assists in data intensive and web-dependent Board Research. The Research Library intern will help improve library services to the Board research and professional community. The intern will work on several of the following projects that represent a good mix of back-end/maintenance and front-end/public-facing tasks: Bibliographic maintenance – Assist in evaluating and replacing URLs for Gift & Exchange resources in the Library's Integrated Library System (ILS). In addition, should the intern's course work and knowledge be sufficient, the intern will work in the ILS to enhance brief bibliographic serial records that were automatically loaded into the ILS. Data – Work on one or several projects related to the library's data initiative: creating marketing materials to promote new data mapping tools; compiling a list of critically important data vendors; and working with the library's subject taxonomy and authority information to populate a SharePoint list. Current Awareness – the intern will explore ways to improve and enhance the Library's SharePoint-based Bank and Broker Newsletter service. The internship is located in Washington, D.C. and lasts ten to twelve weeks and is full time (40 hours per week during working hours). Students enrolled in a Master's degree program in library or information science at an ALA-accredited institution are encouraged to apply. Candidates should have a knowledge of and interest in technology, metadata, and business research. Knowledge of economics, banking, finance, or business topics is highly desirable. Application: Candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and undergraduate and graduate unofficial transcripts to ProjectInterns@frb.gov DEADLINE May 15, 2017. Interviews are conducted by telephone and selections are based solely on academic records and references. For more information or to obtain a FRB employment application, visit our website at www.federalreserve.gov/careers/

Head of Children's Services / Pequannock Township Public Library/ Pompton Plains, NJ/ Apply by 5/19 / The Pequannock Township Public Library is seeking a rising star! We have an opening for an exciting opportunity supervising our children's department. Our well-loved and very busy library is located in a growing suburban community that has a population of 15,500. You will be joining a dynamic staff in a children's department that has established story time programs and a very successful summer reading program. A brand new 1,400 square foot meeting room for children's programs will be breaking ground soon and your vision will make this space welcoming and inviting for children and parents. General responsibilities include: story times, children's programming, children's reference services and back up adult reference, reader's advisory, collection development, Summer Reading programming, website and social media updates, management of library pages and teen volunteers. Visits to the Pequannock Township School District schools to promote the Summer Reading Program and library resources and programs for children and tweens are expected. Experience in all Microsoft Office products and knowledge of Polaris library automation, Constant Contact, Evanced, WordPress, and e-book platforms is a plus. Qualifications include an MLS or MLIS from an ALA accredited institution. We will also consider current MLS or MLIS students nearing the completion of their graduate degree from an accredited school, with title and salary adjusted accordingly. This 35 hour per week position includes weekday, night, and weekend hours and meets the NJLA minimum salary requirements. All employees are members of the NJ PERS Pension plan. Employment offers include a three month probationary period. Resume, cover letter and two references should be emailed to: Debbie Maynard, Library Director, at debbie.maynard@pequannocklibrary.org . Applications will be accepted until May 19.
