Library Director / Wilson Community Library / Wilson, NY / Apply by 7/15 / The Wilson Community Library Board of Trustees is seeking friendly, creative, and enthusiastic candidates for the position of Library Director. The Library Director will be the executive administrative officer reporting to the Board while under its review and direction. He/she will attend all Board meetings. Responsibilities: All aspects of the day to day operation of the library. Management of the library's entire collection through material purchase and re-evaluation. Planning and implementation of new and interesting programming. Marketing of the library and all its resources and programming through the library's website and social media. Supervision of a small staff . Attendance at NIOGA workshops and events. Collaboration with an active

Friends group. Community liaison. Qualifications: Required: Four Year Bachelor's Degree. Preferred: MLS Degree. Experience in library service. Computer and Technology Prowess – Must be comfortable, and capable of, assisting library patrons with a myriad of individual tech-related issues. Must be proficient in OFFICE or similar software. Must be willing to eagerly embrace new technologies as they emerge. Strong Interpersonal Skills - for successful interactions with patrons of all ages. Physical Ability – must be capable of performing the sometimes physical aspects of the position. This (part-time) position is based on a twenty to thirty (20-30) hour work week, with an annual salary starting at $28,500 - dependent upon qualifications and experience.. The Wilson Community Library serves the Town and Village of Wilson, NY and is a member of the NIOGA Library System. Wilson is a small (pop. under 6,000), friendly, rural lakeside community in western New York. In 2015, the people of Wilson overwhelmingly voted to stabilize the library's funding through a 414 funding initiative. The library's annual budget is approximately $125,000. Most recently, the library has been awarded several large NYS construction grants, and is expanding into the library's second floor. The newly enlarged library space will provide a larger community room, three study rooms and a maker space classroom, as well as an expanded children's room. Interested candidates should send letters of interest, along with resumes, via email to wilsoncommunitylibrary@gmail.com. Applications will be accepted through 11:59 pm on July 15, 2020. The Wilson Community Library is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
